Submarine Menace No Longer Is Peril, He Says, Since Shipbuilding Is Now Keeping Far Ahead of Diver Renewal

EDINBURGH, May 24.—The next few weeks will be a race between Hindenburg and Wilson, Premier Lloyd George declared in a speech here today. "The Germans are straining every muscle to reach their goal before we can reach theirs," he said.

Lloyd George said there was no doubt that there has been a conspiracy for a rising in Ireland. He stated that he had seen the evidence. The leaders of the Nationalist party, he added, had nothing to do with it. He continued:

"This is no time to organize campaigns to harass the men who are in charge of the destinies of the nations. There ought to be a truce in such campaigns, at least until the offensive is over."

"We can honestly say that the British government has neglected no possible means of ascertaining whether there is any honorable outlet from the war."

"We are dealing with the ruthless Prussian despotism, which out for plunder and pillage. Their latest treaties restrain Germany as little today as they did when Belgium was invaded."

"We tried repeatedly to achieve unity of command. It is not a secret. It is really incredible that we were compelled to fight months, every inch of the way, for this unity which has added might to our fighting strength."

SUBMARINE MENACES BUT NO LONGER IMPERILS.

"The submarine is still a menace, but is no longer a peril; it is still formidable for inflicting injury, but it cannot cause the winning or losing of the war."

Premier Lloyd George said that America's entrance into the war has not yet equalled Russia's collapse. America's accession, he said, has given the allies only about a fifth of the number of men that Germany was able to add to her armies through withdrawals from the eastern front.

"But on the eve of the great German attack, those best acquainted with the prospects are the most confident of the result," he continued.

"General Foch is one of the most brilliant strategists of the age. He is a man of dynamic energy and profound knowledge and experience, commanding the respect, admiration, confidence and affection of all allied soldiers."

Oakland Red Cross workers may be expected to appear in a new and distinctive uniform as the result of a visit of Mrs. Othman Stevens (on the right), who comes from Los Angeles, where she is a leader in Superfluity Shop work and the originator of the salvage shop. In one month the latter made $11,350.50 and the Superfluity Shop $12,000. The other picture is that Mrs. Bernard Ransom of Oakland, wearing the new uniform.

HUN SUBMARINE BEATEN, MESSAGE OF ADMIRAL SIMS

By FRED J. WILSON.

(Copyright by the International News Service, 1918.)

LONDON, May 24.—"We have the submarine virtually beaten. Co-ordination between the fleets of the allies is a done job. German diver crews are pretty sick and are getting sicker every day."

Thrusting out a fighting jaw and snapping his teeth with a determined click, Admiral Sims, commander-in-chief of the American naval forces in European waters, thus summed up the naval situation to me today in the naval building in Grosvenor Gardens.

The admiral was loud in his praise of the allied sailors and declared that the harmony between them and the Yankee jackies could not be more cordial.

"The navies of the allies are working together as comrades in practically all areas of naval operations," said Admiral Sims. "Their mixed forces are under the direction of a senior allied commander. There is no continuous naval front, but there are several fronts. Each one has his own part to play in the winning."

PRINCE ARTHUR OF CONNAUGHT HERE ON MISSION

WASHINGTON, May 24.—His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught arrived in this country today with a British commission bound for Japan, carrying a special message from the British king to the Japanese emperor.

The prince and the mission will visit here briefly and call on President Wilson. His royal highness is head of the mission and he is proceeding to confer with the field marshal of Japan and the Japanese emperor. Following the king's appointment of him as field marshal of the British army.

The visit at this time, when the Japanese-Siberian question is up, caused speculation here, and the State Department declared that the mission's purpose is purely ceremonial.

The vessel was met and boarded by American and British officials, Colonel E. M. House, close friend of President Wilson, intended to join them shortly afterward. The party is en route to Japan and will probably visit Washington en route.

AN ATLANTIC PORT, May 24.—American troops are now taking a magnificent part in the great battle on the western front, Prince Arthur declared upon his arrival here today en route to Japan.

"One of the last things I did before leaving London," he said, "was to review with the king, some of your troops passing through the streets of London and they certainly made a most magnificent appearance."

"I am very glad to visit the States, especially now that you are with the allies, and in view of the magnificent part your troops are taking in the great battle now going on the western front."

OAKLAND'S U.S. FLYERS RED CROSS GUARD OVER FUND TOTAL CAPITAL IS $125,000 OF FRANCE

With Goal of $200,000 Quota Well in Sight City's Army of Workers in the $100,000,000 Drive Ends Half Campaign

WILL GO OVER TOP WITH BIG SURPLUS

Money Is Pouring Into Headquarters in Large and Small Amounts in Unceasing Flow; Assures Success of Cause

With three days more in which to raise Oakland's total quota of $200,000, and with a total of $125,000 already in hand from all sources, local Red Cross committees and auxiliaries today swung into the final stride of the big drive which is to carry the city over the top. The work of the women's auxiliaries, which took charge of the drive yesterday, and other committees, netted the work some $24,891.

The amount of $125,000 represents the funds collected through direct efforts of various chapter members and committee organizations. It constitutes the sum of various kinds and the one day's wages pledged by laboring men through their labor organizations, which are yet to come.

The Women's Army brought in $30,000 during the first two days of the drive. This constituted the end of their official labors, the heavy portion of the drive passing on to the women's auxiliaries, the Junior Red Cross and other affiliated bodies in turn.

The women, however, have by no means relaxed their efforts to put Oakland ahead of all previous records. Individually and collectively, they are still at work. The influence of their effort is being shown in the small sums which are coming in from all over the city to swell the total to adequate proportions.

Oakland street carmen and traction employees under the jurisdiction of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways have again touched the 100 per cent mark. The carmen in the Liberty loan drive had a 100 per cent efficiency record for contributions. The traction employees, which was considered a remarkable showing for an extensive organization of this nature. Today they sent into Red Cross headquarters a notification of 100 per cent contributions.

CAMERA MEN SUBSCRIBE FOR MEMBERS AT FRONT

An unexpected donation to the Red Cross came from the Moving Picture and Projecting Machine Operators Local No. 163. The union first made a voluntary offering of one day's pay for the Red Cross work. The members then tendered a check to cover the pay of twelve absent members who are serving the United States at the front. The members of the union who make the donation explained that "the boys would be glad to contribute if they were here."

The theaters have jumped into line with voluntary contributions of an entire day's profits, or the profits from several performances, or in some cases all the money taken in at a single performance. The Kinema turned in $50 from a morning performance of the "Mother's of Liberty," the T. & D. contributed $150, of which $50 represented a matinee and $100 the gift of the employees.

An original plan for raising money for the Red Cross developed at the plant of the California Bag and Paper Company today when the concern agreed to pay its employees wages if they would work on Decoration Day and turn the money in to the Red Cross and then to duplicate as a company contribution whatever amount the men raised in their holiday contribution.

The Nurses' Association of Alameda county, receiving no official recognition from the Red Cross society as an organization, took up an independent collection. Each nurse gave $5 as her share of the big fund. The East Bay Water Company gave $500 to the fund as a company contribution. The Harrison Apartments Barber Shop has agreed to donate the

Clearing Way For Further Increase in Size of Army

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 24.—The Senate military committee today unanimously went on record in favor of large expansion of the American army. It ordered a favorable report on a resolution by Senator Reed of Missouri declaring for an increase of three million men.

By resolution "The President is authorized in his discretion and at such time as he may determine to raise and begin the training of an additional force of three million men," who are "to be called for training at such times and in such numbers as the President may direct."

In taking this action the Senate committee went on record for a further increase in the size of the armed forces, but also of fixing definitely the amount of the increase.

HUNS DISAGREE ON TIME, PLACE OF NEW SMASH

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMS, United Press Staff Correspondent, WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, May 24.—The Germans themselves disagree as to the time and place of resumption of their offensive.

Some enemy prisoners say the next assault will be in the north, with Calais as the objective; some say Amiens and Abbeville will remain the objective, while others say the Rhine area will be the scene of the next drive. Still others have heard rumors of combinations of all of these. The one thing that most of them agree on is that Field Marshal Mackensen will be in charge of the next move.

GERMANS LIE TO GET RECRUITS.

Stories are told of German ruses to keep up the morale in the interior, from where most of the recruits now are being drafted. Most of these recruits are told they are wanted only for work behind the lines. But the drafts no sooner reach the battlefield than they are split up among the divisions needing men to replace casualties.

The broiling sun early today hid its face over the battlefields. Heavy clouds threatened rain, but the wind, blowing a half gale, drove them off by midday, leaving the lines shimmered in sunshine, but much cooler.

For the first time since May 13 the air was comparatively free of war planes.

During the week of May 14-21, inclusive, the British alone sent crashing out of the sunlit skies nearly 200 German airplanes, while bombing machines dropped about 240 tons of high explosives behind the enemy lines. Of these machines mentioned more than 150 were actually seen to crash by others than the airmen who did the job. Five were brought down by "archies" and about thirty dashed out of the heavens out of control.

BREAK IN AIR.

I continued to hear stories about German planes breaking up in mid-air. In one battle this week three were plainly seen to go to pieces when fired into at close quarters. This was when a British formation, returning from a bombing raid, was attacked by twenty enemy scouts. One of these dived on a British two-seater. The British machine gunner fired one shot into it, then it careened, caught fire and dropped. After falling about 2000 feet it broke into several pieces.

Another German scout when given two short bursts by a second British gunner at close range, dived, then its planes folded back. The two planes and the fuselage were found in widely separated places.

A third scout, attacking another British bombing plane, received two volleys and fell in pieces.

Huge Hun Force Near Moscow Cause of Mobilization of the Russ Troops; Claim Brest-Litovsk Treaty Is Broken

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Mutiny has broken out among German soldiers in the east, according to state department messages today.

The Russian wireless message dated May 19 said a German division at Dvinsk, on the 17th, revolted when ordered to march out to war.

Sixty soldiers were shot and more than 1000 put in the prison to await court-martial.

Others made demonstrations against the action of the German commanders. The 17th Infantry Regiment at Wessenberg and other German regiments organized meetings to protest against the continuance of the war.

SUBMARINE BASE IS BOMBED

ROME, May 24.—A British air squadron successfully bombed the Austrian submarine and seaplane base at Cattaro yesterday, setting fire to the piers and barracks, it was officially announced today.

LONDON, May 24.—Bombardment of various British sectors and continued raiding operations were reported by Field Marshal Haig today.

"Hostile activity was active last night west of Lens and in the neighborhood of Festubert," the statement said. "The Nieppe forest sector was bombarded by gas shells."

"We took a few prisoners in a successful raid against La Bassée and in a patrol encounter north of the Ypres-Comines canal."

"A few men are missing as the result of an enemy raid north of hill No. 70 yesterday."

"An attempted enemy raid early last night failed in Aveluy wood."

GERMAN RAIDS ARE REPULSED

Field Marshal Haig said that hostile raids were repulsed at Aveluy wood and south of Hebuteren during the night. French troops made a successful raid east of Loree.

Only intermittent artillery activity at various points was reported by the French war office.

Congress to Pass Tax Bill To End Labors

WASHINGTON, May 24.—That a tax bill must be forced through this session of Congress was the word conveyed to Representative Kitchin from the treasury department this afternoon, following a conference between Secretary McAdoo and President Wilson.

Senators Simmons and Martin and Representatives Kitchin, Sherley and Garner previously had been to the White House. They told the President that Congress is a unit against staying here all summer to work on a tax bill. They suggested issuing more bonds to tide the government over, so that the tax bill might go over until the December session.

President Wilson told them he would agree to whatever McAdoo said.

Arrive From France

Oakland and Alameda are on record today before the Emergency Fleet Corporation in Washington as pledged to do all possible to further the proposal of the government to create on Government Island in Oakland Harbor one of the biggest shipbuilding plants in the world. As an outcome of a meeting held yesterday by representatives of both cities the Fleet Corporation and Chambers of Commerce the following telegram was sent by Joseph E. Cairns, secretary of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, to the Fleet Corporation:

"At conference held this morning between city officials and Chamber of Commerce representatives with Attorney Thatcher and Lieutenant Hynds, it developed that there are no obstacles in the way of acquiring Government Island for the purpose of building ships. The cities of Oakland and Alameda are ready to lease Government Island to Fleet Corporation free of rental and upon your own terms, with no restrictions upon assignment of lease to private parties or corporation at any time the Government should desire. This agreement has already been officially affirmed by resolution of the respective city councils. The Oakland Chamber of Commerce will furnish the Government with one hundred thousand dollar policy issued by reliable insurance companies guaranteeing the title without cost to Fleet Corporation. City of Oakland will grant free right of way for necessary rail connections to Island. Survey made by State Housing Commission show that this city can house all workmen that can possibly be employed and Oakland Chamber of Commerce guarantees ample housing facilities. The fact that we have here a large industrial center capable of furnishing labor, machinery and supplies makes this site ideal for location of plant. We are firmly convinced that this site is by far best that can be secured. If you desire further information or any concession not covered by this wire you have only to command the city government and the Chambers of Commerce of Oakland and Alameda stand ready to meet every demand you can possibly make."

struction of submarines during April was greeted with cheers.

"In April there was the highest output of shipping since the submarine warfare was begun," the premier went on.

"For the first time, production exceeded losses. That's not a bad record for a government whose faults have been so freely advertised. The allies are now building ships faster than the enemy can sink them. The Germans recognize the failure of their submarine warfare and are therefore conducting an offensive on the west front. They were driven into that as a last resort to secure victory."

MOTHER OF LIBERTY IS THRILLING FILM

"Mother of Liberty," shown at the Kinema theater yesterday for the first time in this city, and shown solely for the benefit of the Red Cross, is a picture that will steal the determination of American parents to sacrifice their personal feelings that victory may crown the efforts of the allies to exterminate Prussianism forever.

The picture explains that it is not only in the present war that the Kaiser's men have been guilty of brutalities, but it shows the same brutality back in the war of 1870, when Germany and France were in conflict. Just as they are doing in the present day, the Germans would take out the families of their enemies and shoot them down because they would not tell any of the secrets which the Kaiser desired.

"Mother of Liberty" was only shown yesterday as an added attraction for the Red Cross day. It was reeled off but once, and will not be shown again until early in July when it will be an attraction for a full week at the Kinema.

The picture opens showing an American home, with a mother and her two sons, Bob and Jack, and also Barbeau Castle as Jane, a pretty girl stopping at the home. The father of Bob and Jack gave his life in the Spanish-American war while the mother is recovering from a long illness. The news of the sinking of American vessels by German submarines, and also that the second draft is about to take place is being spread and every one in the country is excited.

ENGAGED TO MARRY.
Just before the news of the draft had been given out, Jack became engaged to Jane, much to the satisfaction of his mother. News of the number of American vessels being sunk previous to the Lusitania, caused some excitement, but the mother's act was too much for Jack's mind, and he decided that he would enlist in the meantime his brother Jack showed signs of cowardice at every mention of war. Jane, his bride-to-be, tried to talk him into following the footsteps of his brother Bob by enlisting, but his answer was that his country did not need him.

Jane, hearing the fate of the Lusitania, enlisted as a Red Cross nurse. Just before Jane is to leave for France as a nurse Jack asks about the marriage, and is told that there will be none until he and Jane meet over in France.

Jane departs without the marriage taking place, and it becomes plain that Jack's mother is beginning to feel sorry her son might be termed a slacker. Stories of the battles in France are read by Jack each day, but not until he picks up a book and reads of the invasion of Alsace by the Germans in 1870 does he decide to join the war over there.

He soon arrives in France, where he is wounded in battle. It happens that his Red Cross nurse is the girl who promised to marry him when they met in France. While lying in his cot in the hospital the marriage is performed.

Cipheum

He was a painter. He was asked to put a sign on the ladies' waiting room in one of the Key Route stations. These were his orders.

He thought a long time. Then he climbed up on a ladder and painted the sign. It read "No Man's Land."

CAN'T EVEN DIE ON COTTON STREET.

They were before the city council protesting the closing of Cotton street and the high-board fence that was put up there to stop the free passage of traffic. Then from the rear rank up spoke a voice which could not be unheard. It said:

"What are we people to do out there? We have to go blocks out of our way to get home just to suppose that someone should die on that street. What would we do—we couldn't get any hacks there for the funeral."

Notwithstanding the presentations the council was obliged and some arrangement will have to be made for the hacks and the hearses.

CASTS HIS VOTE FROM WRONG POCKET.

Deputy District Attorney William B. Smith received a shock the other day when he learned how he happened to lose a case that he had figured for at least a disagreement. For a long time the jury took eleven to one for acquittal. Then they found a unanimous verdict and reported in.

Smith couldn't get the case on it until one day he was going down the street and a friend called him and said in a sort of confidential attitude:

"Did you ever guess how you lost that case?" Then the friend related the circumstance.

Judge Oliver Twist, which is, of course, a fiction for the real name, could neither read nor write. As the case was being proached a conclusion he went to his friend, who wrote a number of slips of paper, "guilty," and on other slips "innocent."

The juror put the "guilty" ballots in his left vest pocket and the "innocent" in the right. When it came to voting on the verdict he drew his votes from his left pocket. But after his fellow jurors had all voted together for a few hours and found who it was that was holding out, they got after him with so much jazz that he got nervous and forgot which pocket it was he was voting from, and as luck for the defendant would have it, voted from the wrong pocket.

THAT MEANS I. M. KOFORD.

If you have seen an angle worm coming home in the morning after a night out among 'em you might possibly be able to figure out a forgery for the signature of Assistant District Attorney James M. Koford.

On another occasion the famous signature was described as like a row of doughnuts fastened together with a string. In reality it looks like a moving picture of a hoop snake.

It consists of twelve evolutions, convolutions or convulsions, in each of which the line begins on the base, indicates an upward concave curve that falls all over itself at the apex and swoops back to the beginning. Each of these convulsions constitutes a letter in the name, and the only way you can figure out the name is to get all the directorates in the world and make a list of all names of twelve letters and by a process of elimination cross out all who couldn't possibly have written to you.

A correspondent who received a letter from Koford in long hand wrote him that it was the most enjoyable letter he ever received.

"Each night," said the correspondent, "I read it and it is a new letter. Then my wife reads it and gets a different letter, and then my daughter interprets it still differently."

Now when Koford writes a letter he has the typist sign his name with the typewriter and then he superimposes the hieroglyphic.

NEAR RIOT AT CANNING PLANT

The plant of the California Canning Company, a Chinese concern, 1816 Twelfth street, was the scene of a riot yesterday noon, when 200 loyal Italian girls drove Mrs. Angelina Colombo, a co-worker from the plant with a bombardment of asparagus, and aided in thrashing her husband, because both refused to subscribe to the Red Cross and had founded a collection committee as "graters."

The trouble started when the collection committee which had received money for the Red Cross from every girl in the place, approached Mrs. Colombo. She refused to give the 25 cents which the rest contributed, and according to the girls, declared the committee were a "bunch of graters." Some of her fellow workers within earshot, caught the remark and the riot started. Asparagus being handy the women hurled it by the crate until the girls were forced to flee.

The girls informed the management that they would walk out on a permanent strike if the Colombos were continued on the company pay roll.

POLICE DRAGNET STATE FOR REGIS

Police lines have been extended throughout the State today and to adjoining states to hunt for James J. Regis, king of the bunco artists, who is alleged to have victimized Milan Kukovisa, proprietor of Milan's Restaurant, 461 Ninth street, out of $2700 by means of the time-honored "brass" gold-brick swindle. The police have been on Regis' trail for seven years.

Regis, who is branded by detectives as the smoothest man in his business, victimized an aged German woman at Fourth and Kirklam streets in 1911, out of a considerable sum of money. He eluded the police and since that date a nation-wide search has been on after him.

Several years ago he appeared at Los Angeles. Police Inspector James Drew, who had been on his trail, went to the Southern city and missed him by a narrow margin. According to the authorities, Regis has plenty of money and "buys" his way and the secrecy which his profession needs.

U. S. PLACES BAN ON PROFITEERING

Alexander T. Stewart, executive secretary of the War Camp Community Service, has received from the War and Navy Departments Commissions on Training Camp Activities, the following statement:

"Profiteers who have been victimizing soldiers and sailors in war camp communities will be shown short shrift by Uncle Sam.

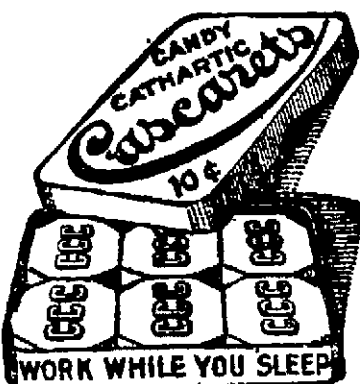

"Many complaints of overcharging have been made by men in uniform to the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities and steps have been taken to stamp out the practice. Through the War Camp Community Service special committees of city officials and leading merchants are being organized in the camp centers to protect the soldiers from unscrupulous and unprincipled dealers who are profiting at the expense of the money refunded.

"In the cases of overcharging that have come to the attention of the training camp commission, the guilty parties for the most part have been dealers from the outside who have been attracted to the camp centers by the prospect of getting rich quick on the soldiers' trade. It is against the kind that the commission's action is being directed.

GREEK DANGERS TO PLUNGE INTO SEA

Final arrangements have been made for the benefit outing to be held at Neptune Beach, Alameda, by the Municipal Civil Service Employees' Association tomorrow, and all is in readiness for the big event which promises to be one of the most pleasant held so far this year at the amusement resort.

Cloud or sunshine, the troupe of Greek dancing girls will appear, and after the exhibition on the sands they will take a plunge in the big tank. Besides the appearance for the first time this year of the classic dancers there will be a number of other feature events which have been planned by the committee in charge. Amateurs and professionals will vie with each other in entertaining the guests of the civil service employees. Hundreds of tickets have been sold by the members and the proceeds will go into a fund to be used in a campaign for proposed amendments to the city charter.

Besides the regularly appointed committees, the women members of the association, who are taking an active part in the affair, include: Bernice Steele, of the street department; Albina Cronan, Kathleen O'Connor and Carrie Kelly, of the health department; Mrs. Anna K. Walker, of the public works department; Edna Peck, treasurer's office; Mrs. Anna Cox, of the department of public health and safety; Grace Olney, of the city clerk's office.

WOULD RENEW NOTES. The Oakland, Antioch and Eastern railway filed with the Railroad Commission today an application for authority to renew its promissory note to the Union Trust Company here for $5000 and $20,000, respectively. The money was originally borrowed to pay for new construction work on the road.

PET SHOW WILL AID BELGIANS

The kiddies in the Fruitvale district are much enthused over the Pet Show to be held under the auspices of the California Children's Committee for the furtherance of French and Belgian Relief at the home of Mrs. R. H. Marchant, 2349 Mitchell street, tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Not to be outdone by the older folks in the Red Cross drive the children are contributing their mite to aid and assist these destitute Belgian and French babies who must rely on American dollars for food and comfort. There will be on exhibition pets from every clime, in fact from the large entry list, it is evident that several classifications will be made to include all.

Besides the deciding of points upon the various pets, there will be races and games for young and old, plenty of refreshments, good music and a nickel dance.

Through the courtesy of Leo Singer of singer's orchestra, the star attraction, elephants and horses included, will aid this cause with their presence, between 4 and 5 p. m. and assist in entertaining the gathering.

Mr. Reiber of Ad-Masque fame has also consented to assist with his troupe of dancing girls.

The committee in charge promises some special features the form of which they will not disclose.

The children ask in the name of that string of hearts that stretches across the seas for old and young to aid them in this noble work.

Mrs. Robert Jump and Mrs. R. H. Marchant of the C. O. C. Chapter No. 6, have the arrangements in hand and promise a delightful time for those who attend.

The Marchant home is reached by taking the Fifty-fifth avenue cars to Mitchell street and then walking north three blocks, or by taking Fruitvale car to Twenty-third street and walking two blocks east to Mitchell street.

I. W. W. Arrested on Charge of Agitation

CHICO, May 24.—J. Young, who claims I. W. W. affiliations, was arrested at Gridley after he had incited the farm laborers on the Walker ranch to go on strike. Young had been at work for Walker less than a day when he stirred up the trouble.

Investigation revealed that he had agitated strikes at other ranches in this section, notably at the Yankum ranch near Gridley and the Peterson ranch at Richvale. Should the investigation being conducted develop sufficient evidence Young will be turned over to the Federal authorities.

The arrest is due to the activity of the newly organized Home Defense League.

Funeral of Dudley Watson Conducted

Dudley L. Watson, for forty years a resident of San Jose, was buried in that city yesterday according to word sent friends in this city. Watson was a veteran of the civil war, a member of the G. A. R. and a member of the C. O. F. Rev. E. A. King of the Congregational church and the members of the I. O. O. F. conducted the services. The ritual of the G. A. R. was read at Oak Hill cemetery where interment took place. Besides his widow he leaves his children, Mrs. W. R. Irish, Frank and Ross D. Watson.

SAYS WEST MORE LOYAL THAN EAST

"This talk we hear from the east to the effect that California has not awakened to the war and that the east is more loyal is all bosh. There are more red-blooded, loyal Americans in California in general walks of life than there are in the east."

So says Christian Bernard, of the Oakland firm of Bernard and Erickson, who returned today from an extensive tour of the east, during which he visited every commission market in a larger city in the east, and studied business conditions. "The westerner who stays in the hotel lobbies hears a lot of noise there and comes back with the idea that the east is more loyal," says Bernard. "But if you go out into the streets of the east, you find a different aspect. For instance, in the eastern commission markets, the dealers are not mostly foreigners, the Americans having gone to war. The general rank and file of the people in the east are not as awake to the situation as here, and do not support the nation's war aims as liberally. "Business is enormous, and prices to

WASHINGTON, May 24.—There are forty-four names on the casualty list announced by the war department today. Four were killed in action, ten died of disease, nine of wounds, four by accident, sixteen were wounded severely and one was wounded slightly.

The officers included in the list were: Captain Fred De Clair, Philadelphia; killed in action; Lieutenants Whitney H. Joyce, Unadilla, New York, died of wounds; Lieutenants Aimee D. Genard, Manchester, N. H., and Eugene Paulwubben, Colorado Springs, Colo., died of disease; Joseph A. Bettenhausen, Hazleton, Pa., died of accidents.

Captain John A. Battin, Watervliet, N. Y., severely wounded. Money is spent like water in New York, Washington and the larger cities. In New York the saloons are doing an enormous business. In Washington, by the way, there is a little theater where all the old time McCree stuff they used to put on in the old Midway in San Francisco is being played—unexpurgated, too. It is crowded every night at big prices."

"LINE FROM HOME MOST WELCOME" WRITES SOLDIER

"All you folks who have friends 'over there' just take a few minutes and drop the boys a cheerful line or two: there is nothing more welcome than a letter from home," writes Private Clement Robert Gibson of this city, who is in France with the 161st U. S. Infantry. In a letter to his father, R. W. Gibson, of 497 Twelfth street, Private Gibson says the boys receive the best of treatment and that they are in the best of health and are having regular California weather. He writes that the mail difficulty is rapidly being overcome, and that it takes mail about one month to reach France from Oakland.

Young Gibson left here for Camp Lewis in November of last year. He was in the depot brigade for about two weeks and was then sent to Camp Mills, New York. From Camp Mills he was transferred to France, reaching there on New Year's Day, where he and his comrades were given a hearty welcome.

Help the Red Cross All You Possibly Can

Your Health Depends Upon Your Kidneys

Many organs take part in assimilation of food, and a number are active in eliminating those portions of the food which are not taken into the blood for the rebuilding of the body. Of the eliminative organs, the liver and the kidneys are of major importance, and are most likely to be overworked and become diseased. When such is the case, various troubles of a digestive and eliminative character occur, and such troubles are so frequent and so common that it is absolutely necessary to find some relief. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy was compounded over 40 years ago to help equalize the work of both kidneys and liver. How successful it has been is evidenced by its widespread sale and its value is attested by an immense number of appreciative users who through these many years have put it to the severest tests with the most satisfactory results. "About 7 years ago I was so weak and worn out that I could hardly work. After using Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy, in a short time the pain left me, and the rheumatism and dyspepsia vanished. We have used Warner's Safe Remedies ever since with great success in our family." O. F. Rose, Burtonville, Kentucky, U. S. A. Sold by druggists everywhere. Sample sent on receipt of ten cents. POLICE FAIL TO AGREE ON CHANGE

During a stormy session which lasted the entire afternoon, delegates representing the members of the entire police department took under discussion proposed amendments to the city charter which would make material changes in the present regime and at the same time provide for a higher salary schedule.

Tentative amendments offered by Sergeant W. H. McLeod and by Corporal V. J. Coley which would give to the chief of police the power to appoint the captain of inspectors from the ranks of the plain clothes men, created a storm of disapproval from the ranks of the plain clothes men. Led by Lieutenant William F. Woods, also a former chief, the Peterson faction protested consideration of the change for the reason that it would legislate Peterson out of his civil service position of captain of inspectors.

As the result of the opposition the matter was not definitely settled and will come up for further discussion.

Another proposition discussed at length was that pertaining to the promotion in the ranks and the eligibility of the men in the uniform rank to take examinations for inspectors or assistant inspectors. At the present time by decree of the civil service board only third grade patrolmen and corporals are eligible to take examinations for inspector rank and the sergeants object.

From the inspectors' bureau it is proposed that there be no assistant inspector position and that patrolmen be not assigned to the bureau unless they qualify in the proper manner.

So widely are the differences between the factions in the department at the present time that it is not likely that any definite procedure in the matter of amendments affecting the department will be decided upon in the near future.

Before the meeting adjourned those present unanimously voted a day's pay each to be contributed to the Red Cross.

Healthy Old Age

The best way to prevent premature old age is to keep the blood rich and red by the daily maintenance of the laws of right living. Even after you're advanced in years, right living will still keep your blood pure and good. When you begin to run down, build up your blood with Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan

"The Red Blood Builder"

Study this picture so you will know how genuine Pepto-Mangan looks.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan builds the body by building the blood. It feeds the red blood cells with just the elements they need. Prescribed and recommended by thousands of physicians as a general blood tonic and appetizer for the feeble and ailing of all ages. It is exceedingly pleasant to taste, and easily digested.

Friendly Warning: There are many imitations of Pepto-Mangan on the market, but you can be sure of getting the genuine if it bears the name "Gude" and is put up in the bottle and sealed package as pictured here. Ask for it by its full name—"Gude's Pepto-Mangan." For sale at all drug stores.

"Wildwood" to Be Woman's Colony

Mrs. Frank C. Havens Is Founder

"Wildwood," the Piedmont estate of Mrs. Frank C. Havens, known throughout California as one of the show places of the bay cities, is to become a community colony for women. The woman who with her heart and hands is accomplishing the world's work. Mrs. Frank C. Havens is making the initial announcement of the gigantic plan, which will institute on the Pacific Coast a pioneer woman's colony and one of the most original in the world. The community idea for women who are independent and who need their own homes under such conditions as the more protected woman of family and means acquiescent in the world, most originally by Mrs. Havens.

For many years the possessor of the fifty acres of wooded land which is included in the "Wildwood" estate has had plans for offering something which would be of assistance to her sister women. She is reaching out in sharing her picturesque hill property with them that she can not only contribute to their well-being, but not bring embarrassment to the spirit of independence which is so strong in that class of women who are reaching out. The new undertaking is not philanthropic in any sense. There is an underlying principle of mutual assistance which will be carefully observed in all the plans and their development.

PRELIMINARY PLANS.
Miss Gertrude Comfort will go over the extensive property on Sunday on a preliminary tour to planning out the entire scheme. It is proposed to build community houses in groups in the bare spots and on the hill tops, where eight or ten friends or members of the same art or craft may find their home. The apartments, separate, yet forming a unit about a court, will be offered the woman seeking a permanent home at the lowest possible figure. They will be built so that one woman, or perhaps two, will have all the convenience which may be found in a far more pretentious household. And because it is a woman who is planning them and under the supervision of a woman, the latest conveniences in making house-

A WORD TO GRIP SUFFERERS

The form of influenza commonly known as "the grip" is a disease of short duration usually running its course in from two to ten days. Medical treatment does not help much. During its short course the grip makes a woman feel as though the blood, weakening the digestion and leaving the nerves unstrung and oversensitive. An attack of the grip is often the unsuspected cause of much suffering and chronic ill health later on. After the grip there is always danger of pneumonia unless the strength of the patient is built up so that the body can defend itself. It is a condition that calls for a tonic.

The best way to correct this after-effect of the grip is to build up the blood and there is no better blood builder than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

As soon as the revitalized blood courses through the system you are aware of its soothing influence. Gradually the color returns to the pale cheeks, appetite and digestion return and you are on the road to health. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50 at drug stores or by mail from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Write today for the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood."

NEBRASKA JUDGE NOW ENDORSES IT

Hon. B. F. Whittington Has Gained Twenty Pounds by Taking Tanlac.

One of the distinguishing features of the introduction of Tanlac throughout the country is the large number of prominent men who have felt its duty to disregard precedent and come forward with their unqualified endorsements of the medicine because of the benefits they have derived from its use.

The latest addition to the list of prominent endorsers is the name of Hon. Benjamin F. Whittington, judge of the Tolson Court, South Omaha, Neb. In relating his experience with Tanlac, Judge Whittington said: "The results of Tanlac in my case certainly seem remarkable to me. Before I began taking it, my health was broken in many ways and I did not know which way to turn for relief. My liver was all out of kilter, I was habitually constipated and bilious. I was so frightened by my own condition that I could not sleep over for fear of falling. My kidneys were in bad shape, and I had fearful pains in the small of my back. My appetite seemed to be fairly good, that is, I could eat, but my food did not seem to be properly assimilated. I failed to rest me, and I felt tired, languid and worn out all the time. I was pale and not only felt badly, but I looked that way. I had been in this condition for a year and was becoming badly worn because nothing seemed to reach my case."

"I had fallen off twenty pounds in weight as a result of my troubles, but I have gained it all back by using Tanlac and have never felt better in my life. I decided from what I read in the papers about it to try it and I felt like a new man before I finished my first bottle. So I went right back for another and so on until I took five bottles and now I haven't an ache or a pain and am feeling great. And eat my food. I eat like a farm hand, all I can get. I never saw anything like it. I feel like a lot, and get up in the morning thoroughly refreshed and feel brim full of vim and energy all day long. Now this is just what Tanlac has done for me and I gladly give this statement for what it is worth to others who are trying to find relief."

Among the long list of prominent men in public life from all parts of the country who have endorsed Tanlac for the benefit they have derived from its use, are the names of Hon. Frank N. Evans, former mayor of Birmingham, Ala.; Hon. McKeezie Moss, Circuit Judge in the Eight District of Kentucky; Hon. R. Glenn State Superintendent of Printing for the State of Kentucky; Hon. Archie P. Anderson, for seven years sheriff of Harris County, Texas, residing at Houston, Texas; Hon. C. W. Mangum, for four terms sheriff of Pulaski County, Georgia, residing in Atlanta, Ga.; and hundreds of others too numerous to mention.

Stomach Troubles.
When your system becomes clogged from overeating, constipation and a torpid liver your system is likely to be troubled with a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will give you quick relief. They cause the free movement of the bowels, tone up the liver and strengthen the digestion. You will be surprised when you realize how much better you are feeling a day or two after taking these tablets. Advertisement.

work easy and swift of accomplishment will be installed. But the community house will be but one form of residence which will be built. There will be the dark bungalow and the Japanese tea house. These will be a little more ambitious in both architecture and room, carrying out the original ideas and lines of the India and Japanese miniature house. They will be designed for the woman who prefers a less intimate mode of living. Strategic sites will be selected on which these unique homes will nestle, with rough winding stairways and picturesque trails to lead to them.

NO FENCE RULE.
A "no fence" rule will be established. Those who purchase the quaint homes in the new plan will agree to leave open their bits of land keeping the unity of the park. Around the houses will be a series of paths with rustic bridges that will be used for the use of all. Mrs. Havens, whose home will remain, will keep up the beautiful grounds, to which all the home-makers will have access. The unused ground will also become community ground for the woman who is ambitious to put in her "war garden" or her kitchen garden or even fruits and vegetables and flowers which may bring to her a revenue. The oak groves and wooded canyons will remain.

On the broad saddle which reaches down into the canyon, and from which the most gorgeous views at "Wildwood" are obtained, it is proposed to build a community kitchen and dining-room to be used by her who has no mind to give to the matter of eating, and who will find in this method a vast economy of time and money.

Estimate Cost of Salary Increases

Estimates are being prepared in the office of L. H. Clay, city auditor and assessor, on the cost to the taxpayers of increasing the salaries of city employees, not already under charter regulation 10 per cent, commencing the 1st of July. The civil service board recently requested that figures be compiled in the different departments showing the number that would be affected in the proposed increase.

That the cost yearly would be approximately $75,000, or about 6 cents in the tax levy, is the tentative estimate. It is based upon a 10 per cent raise for all employees who receive $150 a month or less.

Clubs

Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs has pledged to the boys in the leper colony at the county infirmary that all their small personal wants shall be cared for. These strangely contented lads have asked for strange things of the women who promised them a gratification of their simple wishes. One lad wanted above all else a white shirt. Another wanted a pair of suspenders. The listless of all wanted a new blouse and necktie. Each received what he asked for.

The leper boys live in a garden, but they get very lonesome. A strange face, a little company makes them very happy. And this, too, the mothers have promised to supply along with an occasional new picture for their house or a new book for their discussion.

As editors and copy readers and proofreaders, the women of the Glenview Club are to make their debut immediately following the summer vacation. The Glenview Improvement Club and the Glenview Woman's Club have an official organ between them devoted to community interests. The whole of the six pages for one issue is to be turned over to the feminine forces, who will undertake to do all the work of news gathering, preparation and issuing.

"Thank Heavens, Phil, My Clothes Worries Are Over"

"Nope, I haven't enlisted. Uncle Sam turned me down on account of poor eyes. So the next best thing I could do was to buy bonds and thrift stamps. I used every available cent of cash—and then bought some more. That left me stripped as far as clothes money was concerned. Then came this chance to nab a dandy job—but to do it I had to make a decent appearance. I remembered Jess telling me about a downtown shop called Cherry's, where you buy any suit in the house on easy terms. I beat it down there in a hurry—and now I've solved the clothes problem to a T. Never again am I going to save for clothes so long as Cherry makes it possible to buy the same high-grade suits at the same reasonable prices on such easy terms. A little down and a little each week. They have two stores—a men's store at 523 13th and a women's store at 515 13th."—Advertisement.

MISS STINSON TO RESUME FLIGHT THIS AFTERNOON

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., May 24
Miss Katherine Stinson, aviatrix, will be unable to leave Binghampton before 2 o'clock this afternoon on her trip from Chicago to New York. Lack of gasoline compelled Miss Stinson to make a landing north of this city last evening and a high wind turned over her machine and resulted in a broken propeller as she brought it to a standstill on a high hill.

But Miss Stinson established a new American non-stop record by flying from Chicago to Binghampton, a distance of 783 miles, without landing. The aviatrix made an average speed of 78 miles an hour. Miss Stinson, who was carrying Chicago mail to New York, is waiting in Binghampton for a new propeller which is en route from Elmira. As soon as it arrives she will continue her trip to New York.

Lion's Club Will Support Red Cross

Red Cross work occupied the session of the Lion's Club yesterday at the Hotel Oakland, when Rabbi J. Nieto of San Francisco was the principal speaker, making a vigorous plea for support of the drive.

The club will celebrate the formal entry of the organization into the International Association of Lions' Clubs Tuesday at the Hotel Oakland. Enlisted men of the army and navy will be among the honored guests of the evening.

The Right Laxative For The Little Ones---

The natural condition of a child is to be happy and carefree. When the girl moans and is indifferent to school and study, or the boy is sullen and refuses to go out and play; the child needs a laxative to empty the bowels and stir up the liver.

But something should be given that will produce the result in as simple and natural a way as possible. Harsh cathartics and physics are neither necessary nor desirable.

Many mothers have found that the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr.

Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin produces a free movement of the bowels without griping. A very little is required, and it is pleasant to take. A few hours after its use the child will be its happy self again.

It is an excellent remedy for the mother herself, and for the other members of the family, in obstinate or occasional constipation, for the relief of headaches, as an aid in colds and fevers, minor skin eruptions and all disorders where the basis of the trouble is constipation.

The druggist will refund the money you pay for Syrup Pepsin if it fails to do as promised.

Dr. Caldwell's SYRUP PEPSIN

The Perfect Laxative

NO INCREASE

In spite of enormous increased laboratory costs due to the war the manufacturers of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are sacrificing their profits and absorbing the war taxes so that the family laxative may remain at the pre-war price of 50c and $1 a large bottle. Sold by druggists for 25 years.

FREE SAMPLES

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest selling liquid laxative in America. If you have never used it and would like to sample it before buying, send your address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 465 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. If you have been in the family used for a copy of "The Care of the Baby."

SPROULE, LEVEY OUSTED BY M'ADOO

Railroad presidents are to be abolished, and federal managers take their places, according to telegrams received by President William Sproule of the Southern Pacific and President Charles M. Levey of the Western Pacific, from Director-General McAdoo of the railroad administration. In the case of a majority of the railroads, it is intimated, the presidents will be asked to assume the new position of federal manager which are to be created.

"There is no desire to disrupt the organization of the railroads," said McAdoo in his telegrams, which were worded diplomatically. "In some cases the presidents will be appointed federal managers. The move is aimed to conform with the government's desire to operate the railroads as efficiently and economically as possible, and to retain the operating organizations as intact as possible."

Sproule declined to discuss whether he would accept the position, but it is understood that Levey probably will assume the new title if it is offered. Vice-President W. R. Scott of the Southern Pacific left yesterday for Ogden to meet Western Regional Director H. H. Ashton, formerly

Plan to Observe Memorial Day Programs Prepared For Occasion

In these times when everyone has friends or relatives facing death in France, Oakland is preparing to honor the memory of those who have in former times laid down their lives on the altar of freedom. Thousands of patriotic citizens will take part in the Memorial Day exercises to be held in the cemetery on Thursday, May 30, by the Grand Army of the Republic and the Spanish War and Philippine Veterans and their auxiliaries. Because of the special significance of the ceremonies, the Memorial day committee has appealed for a universal observance of the day.

Memorial services will be held at Mountain View cemetery at 10 o'clock in the morning and at Evergreen cemetery at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Comrade J. W. Van Kirk will be president of the day at Mountain View, and Comrade J. R. Souphan grand marshal. The Memorial day address will be delivered by Rev. Frank M. Sisley of the First Presbyterian church.

At Evergreen cemetery Comrade W. W. Donham will be president of the day and Judge William H. Wasie will deliver the address. There will be appropriate music by the Oakland public school bands and a firing squad will be present from the United States naval station.

Sunday afternoon, May 26, the ladies of Lyon Post, Women's Relief Corps, will strew flowers on the waters of Lake Merritt in memory of the sailor dead.

Commission Man Is Out of Hospital

Henry Zentner, of the commission firm of Levy and Zentner, who has been in a San Francisco hospital for several weeks following an operation, today returned to the commission district. A few weeks, his physicians say, will see him entirely recovered.

ASK CITY FOR $1000 TO HOLD LOYALTY WEEK

Application for $1000 to pay the expenses of Dr. Frederick Vining Fisher and his party, in conducting the Democracy War Organization week in Oakland, was made to the City Council today by a committee composed of Mayor Perry, president of the Oakland War Service League, Judge Harry Fisher, and W. J. Spooner of the Central Labor Council.

The Council went into executive session to consider the request, and it was decided to refer the application to the Committee on Finance, which will be held on Monday night. It was requested that an itemized budget of the expenses be submitted to Commissioner Edwards and the city attorney, and that the money be appropriated before funds are appropriated by the City Council from the city treasury to provide for the affair. The money would probably have to be transferred to the entertainment fund before an appropriation could be made. No details of how the money is to be spent have so far been given the commissioners, it was said after the conference.

SEEKS INFORMATION

Criticism of the fact that no public accounting of the expenditure of $750 raised by the citizens of Berkeley for the five days spent by the Fisher party in war organization work in Berkeley led Mayor Davis to seek information as to the expenditure by the Council of Defense of the activities of Dr. Fisher and his staff.

Inquiry today as to the use of the money, made to A. F. Nafziger, president of the Oakland State Council of Defense, elicited the information that the state council had approved the activities of the party and had endorsed the financial plan, under which Dr. Fisher and George Hugh Perry received 40 per cent of the proceeds, and the remainder was used for expenses and the payment of salaries among the staff. Nafziger said "Dr. Fisher submitted his proposition for conducting his war organization work in California cities, and received the approval of the state council. The financial arrangement, previously agreed upon by Dr. Fisher and Perry received the sanction of the Council of Defense. It is that Dr. Fisher and Perry are to receive 40 per cent of the total obtained and that the remainder, or 60 per cent is used for the staff and expenses."

ASKS $1000.

The proposition made in Oakland by Dr. Fisher that $1000 shall be paid for the week of war organization service here that would give Dr. Fisher and Perry $400, according to Nafziger's statement, leaving $600 for the remainder of the staff of five men and Mrs. Perry.

Dr. Fisher's party includes his son, George Hugh Perry, Mrs. Perry, Lieutenant Carter, B. A. Blake, advance agent of the party, and Lynn Rohrbach, motion picture operator.

Sergeant Schneider, a veteran of the war, who is announced as one of the speakers during War Organization Week, is not a part of the staff. He is working directly under the orders of the War Department.

MAKES STATEMENT.

Preston Higgins, secretary to the mayor, gave out this statement today. During the past few days some criticisms were made to me regarding the financial end of the campaign which was conducted in Berkeley by Dr. Fisher and his staff. I got in communication with Mayor Irving, of Berkeley, and he assured me that the week's campaign was a huge success, that he had nothing but unstinted praise for it, that Berkeley is better for it, and that everything connected with it met with his (Mayor Irving's) absolute approval. I spent one whole day in thoroughly investigating the standing of Doctor Fisher and the entire campaign methods being carried on by the State Council of Defense, and the opinions I received were practically unanimous. They all agreed that Community Week is a very valuable and necessary educational effort at this time. The week's program as scheduled in Oakland shows that there will be at least ten people working in this city in schools, factories, public meetings, open air rallies and other activities, supplied with government reels, slides and literature, for a period of eight days, and the many events contained in the program convinced me that Oakland will understand her place in the American Union and feel more poignantly her responsibility as a patriotic city because of the efforts to be made.

"As to the financial end of this campaign, I have no doubt it will properly taken care of by that body of gentlemen representing the many different elements of this city which met with Doctor Fisher several weeks ago at a luncheon at the Hotel Oakland, when the entire program of

END OF SORRY ROMANCE IS TOLD TO JURY

WAUKESHA, Wis., May 24.—Grace Lusk finished on the witness stand today a dramatic story of her shooting her husband, Dr. Robert Lusk, her husband. The murder trial defendant was immediately turned over to Prosecutor Corrigan for cross-examination.

Today she told why she made her will. She said she realized her reputation was gone and that she did not want to live longer. It was made after her last meeting with Dr. Robert Lusk at the hotel where she threatened him with death if he did not tell her he loved her only, and then later "took it back."

Attorney Clancy asked about the "unexpected thought" letter which she wrote but never mailed to Mrs. Robert Lusk.

"It was unfortunate that that letter was not destroyed," began Miss Lusk. "I wish it—"

Campaign was outlined, and when Doctor Fisher was assured that all legitimate expenses would be taken care of in this, as in all other patriotic matters, I am satisfied that Oakland will keep her promise.

"Mayor Davis officially appointed the executive committee as chosen by the citizens, and certainly would not lend the dignity of his office and volunteer his personal efforts to a campaign over which hung any kind of a cloud."

Tours U. S. in Behalf of Jewish Soldiers

Alexander Barish, president of the Jewish Soldiers' Welfare League of Winnipeg, Manitoba, has arrived in this city on his itinerary of the United States in behalf of Jewish soldiers in the various encampments. During his stay here he will visit the Young Men's Hebrew Association of the bay cities, and will be asked to address the Oakland association. He is accompanied by Mrs. Barish and by their daughter.

May Change System of Garbage Disposal

Members of the city council will tomorrow morning visit the West Oakland waterfront, where the present garbage dumps exist, for the purpose of inspecting the situation with a view of changing the system of disposal now in effect. Commissioner Soderberg stated that he has before him two new propositions for the disposal of the city's garbage, and that he expects to make a report to the council in the next few days. The new contract is due the first of July. It is now held by the scavengers' association on a monthly renewal plan.

I am Sincere! Stop Calomel! I Guarantee Dodson's Liver Tone

Listen to me! Calomel sickens and you may lose a day's work. If bilious, constipated or headachy read my guarantee.

Live up your sluggish liver! Feel fine and cheerful; make your work a pleasure; be vigorous and full of ambition. But take no nasty, dangerous calomel, because it makes you sick and you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel crabs into your bile like dynamite, breaking it up. That's when you feel that awful nausea and cramping.

Listen to me! If you want to enjoy the most, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight. Your druggist or dealer sells you a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents under my personal money-back guarantee that each spoonful will clean your sluggish liver better than a dose of nasty calomel and that it won't make you sick.

Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, headache and dizziness gone; stomach will be sweet and bowels regular.

Dodson's Liver Tone is entirely vegetable, therefore harmless and can not sicken. Give it to your children. Millions of people are using Dodson's Liver Tone instead of dangerous calomel now. Your druggist will tell you that the sale of calomel is almost stopped entirely here—Advertisement.

Lift off Corns, Magic! no Pain

Drop Freezone on a touchy corn, then lift corn off with fingers

Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. It doesn't pain one bit. Yes, magic!

Why wait? Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of Freezone for a few cents. It is sufficient to lift your aching corn, then you lift it right out. It doesn't pain one bit. Yes, magic!

Dandruff Surely Destroys the Hair

Girls—If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair do by all means get rid of dandruff. It is the enemy of the hair. It starves your hair and ruins it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to destroy it. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any druggist. It is inexpensive and four ounces of it will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Advertisement.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily. Here's a chance. Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles, while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling. Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case. Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength. Othine, in its strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Advertisement.

Heal Skin Diseases

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with eczema, blotches, ringworm, rashes and similar skin troubles. Ahtezemo, obtained at any drug store for 50c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching, burning, and stinging, and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases. Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. It is not greasy, is easily applied and costs little. Get it today and save all further distress. Spirits and Raw Onions Mixed to Cure Women's Ills

MRS. GLADYS KLINDT

Pretty Patient Says Coin Was the Guiding Element in Case.

"Spirits centers," raw onions, hot baths, mysterious women of poetic inclinations, seances in dim twilight, health charts and homilies on generosity are all alleged to figure in the background of the embroilment charge which "Dr." Victor Leon La Tour, alias Swami Samada, metaphysical healer, is being brought back from Los Angeles in custody to face. The complainant is Mrs. Gladys Klindt, pretty Oakland divorcee of 471 Twenty-seventh street, who claims she was mulcted out of $50 for which no value was received.

Mrs. Klindt pays high tribute to the "doctor's" alleged capacity for getting concrete money from abstract ideas. She declares she has been ill for a long time and that about the middle of last March she saw La Tour, sign as a metaphysical healer in a window at Twenty-eighth street and Telegraph avenue and walked in for treatment. The "doctor," she avers, talked largely of "spirit centers," where "kindred souls" were to "hold converse," and for $50, in hand to him paid, agreed to make a well woman out of her.

FUN STARTED. "I gave him the $50," she said, "and the fun started. He had me eating raw onions and taking so many hot baths I nearly died. He called himself 'Swami Samada,' which he is not. He told me he was a Christian healer. He told me he got something out of everything in life. I know now that he was right. He got $50 out of me. One day I found that the 'swami' was living at the Kenwood apartments—that a Mr. and Mrs. La Tour were living there. When I learned this I started to make inquiries about him. Shortly afterward he left town.

According to Mrs. Klindt, La Tour alleged that he was the founder of a string of "centers," in which spiritual redemption work was conducted on a wholesale basis. He offered to make her a "nucleus" for a spiritual center when she should have advanced from a metaphysical point of view.

"I had very little money and it looked like a real job," said Mrs. Klindt today. "So I waited for it. But the swami seemed to have lost all interest in me. He told me he wanted to know all about $1000 which my mother had in the bank and which he said would make a well woman out of her. I decided that it would make a sick woman out of her. If he got it, I did not want it. So I went far there. When he found that I was not showing the proper interest he brought me a lot of books on the evils of being a miser and hoarding money."

WOMEN PATIENTS. According to Mrs. Klindt, the swami boasted of his large clientele of wealthy women patients in the Hotel Oakland. One day during her investigation of the healer she says she dropped in to see Manager Maurice Shenick of the hotel. There she learned, from Shenick's remarks, that the swami was a "good spender" and that he had been the presiding genius at a number of dinners.

The climax of La Tour's healing, according to Mrs. Klindt, came when he told her he was with her in spirit all the time and that she would live to be a hundred years old.

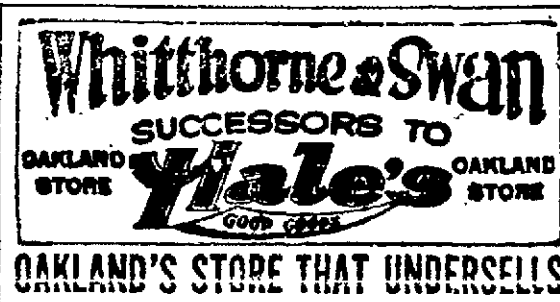

"I figured if I was to live that long it was about time I got something for the $50," she says. "So I started out to make inquiries. The next I heard from swami was in a letter from the Hotel Vendome at Santa Cruz on April 27."

MYSTERY WOMAN. A mysterious "Mrs. Breck," who called at the Klindt home yesterday and attempted to convince her that La Tour was a gentleman, a fair correspondent from Ocean Park, who signed herself "Caroline" and others, who wrote poetry which they showed under the swami's door, declares Mrs. Klindt may be able to cast additional light on his movements.

The police are investigating allegations made by Mrs. Klindt that La Tour represented himself as a physician of thirty years' practice and fully licensed. The man was arrested yesterday at Los Angeles on information from this city. An inspector is on his way south to bring him back to this city for trial.

FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1918.

HOW STANDS THE RECORD?

Red Cross week is near its close. Have you become a contributor to the second war fund of this organization of mercy?

Civic pride and civic reputation are not the vital things at stake in this connection; these are secondary matters.

The central thought should be whether you as an individual and a loyal citizen have been true to your country and to yourself. An opportunity for voluntary, important humanitarian service is presented; have you taken advantage of it?

If you have delayed your response or been unmindful of your duty, there remain yet a few hours in which to make good with yourself and to the men on the firing line.

WAR FINANCE.

Official returns on the third Liberty Loan bond do not materially alter the analysis The TRIBUNE made two weeks ago of the financial performances of the nation since war was declared. They emphasize, however, the causes for an optimistic outlook regarding the future. The total of subscriptions to the third loan is $4,170,000,000, an over-subscription of 39 per cent. Estimates submitted to the Congress last week by Secretary of the Treasury, McAdoo show that while the country was pledging itself to loan the government over four billions of dollars it was at the same time paying approximately three billions in war income and excess profits taxes. The taxes must be paid by June 1st. Thus in two months, April and May, the country was able to place to the credit of the national government over seven billions of dollars.

Another noteworthy financial feature of the third loan is that cash payments already amount to $1,580,000,000, although only $208,500,000, or 5 per cent of the total, is due. This indicates that many subscriptions were paid in full. To recapitulate, the government has received from the people in the three Liberty Loans and in taxes $12,978,000,000 within a twelve months period. This is at rate of over a billion a month.

But behind the story of financial strength these figures tell is that equally gratifying record of the popular response to a summons of strength. No bond flotation in any nation has ever approached the record of 17,000,000 buyers. It is perfectly plain that the ordinary average person is fully aware that the country is at war and is determined to see the thing through. The country has got its "second wind" in the matter of war finance, which will make future efforts easier for the government.

The first year of war financing has plainly developed a habit of mind that will be most useful to the country and beneficial to the people—the habit of thrift. It is not reasonable to expect that the intense saving and investment will continue indefinitely after the war, but certainly a whole, some measure of the habit will be in evidence for a generation or more. This will mean permanent wealth of character. The individual and the nation that shows a surplus of income over ordinary expenses will have a greater productive efficiency. Production is a significant word in general application. It applies to the creation, through industry and thrift, of health, happiness and a higher standard of life.

GENIUS AND ENERGY.

Probably several months will yet elapse before it can be said with assurance that the German submarine is under complete control as a menace to Ally and neutral shipping. But there are encouraging signs that all may be grateful for. During the month of April fourteen U-boats were sunk or captured in British waters by British and American destroyers. This many have been officially accounted for; others may have been sunk by mines or damaged by attacking destroyers, but the evidence of their fate is as yet inconclusive.

These victories are to be credited to offensive tactics of the Allies and represented an inflicted loss greater than the capacity of German yards to replace within the same period. Depth bombs, hydrophones for listening for the approach of submarines, and other new devices, such as the sending out of sound waves from destroyers to record the position of an object in the water, are working for mastery over the Boche undersea pirates. These products of genius, aided by the vigilance, dash and courage of the destroyers, will overcome the submarine in time. Of this we may be sure.

"UNCLE JOE'S" FAITH.

Representative Cannon of Illinois, familiarly known to the country as "Uncle Joe," made a speech in Congress the other day on the administration bill delegating added and practically unlimited power to the President in connection with the war. Some interest attached to his utterances because he belongs to that division of the House which until April 6, 1917, was correctly classified as the "opposition." He spoke in support of the President's bill.

But more serious attention was paid Mr. Cannon's speech because of the years of experience and the knowledge of other national crises that was back of his advice and predictions. Mr. Cannon is 84 years old, so his memory reaches from the Civil War to the war against Prussian aggression. He reminded his fellow members that there had been no partisan opposition to the President's plans since the war started, that the country was united and Congress should remain united behind the single idea of winning the war. Then he concluded with the following:

"History will take care of itself. Lincoln never dreamed that he would dwell, as he will dwell, in history. McKinley, Garfield and Cleveland—all of these people who have been Presidents—will dwell in history to a greater or less extent. And if there be mistakes honestly made as we journey along in this great struggle the people will be magnanimous. They will say, 'We could not get ready in a minute; we had to have experience; we had to have preparation; we were not ready; and there was not any of us, as far as I know, that did not regret our want of readiness, thank God, except Creel; and if I wanted to give any advice to this administration, I would say take Creel by the seat of the breeches and the nape of the neck and throw him into space.'"

"So much for that. I believe from week to week and month to month and Congress to Congress while this war lasts the great mass of both parties, the people from the North, the South, the East and the West, will become more efficient, more patriotic, with greater power, and whatever the cost is, whether we mortgage the future or whether we take the property that is in existence and tax it and tax it and tax it—whatever the future may bring to us, we will win this great struggle."

Were we the government censor we might delete that phrase about Mr. Creel, but it may as well stand just as "Uncle Joe" spoke it. It is important in or out of the speech. The main point is the cheerful, courageous, patriotic outlook Mr. Cannon commends to the people. Along its way lies the road to victory.

THE EVENING OF REGRET.

In an impressionistic story from the Stockholm special correspondent of the Paris Matin gives a little sidelight on this rendezvous of German agents, "pacifists" and revolutionists. At a small side table in a gilded cafe built by Swedish profiteers in German espionage and propaganda he talked with Ziermann, first secretary of the Russian Maximalist legation at Stockholm. And Ziermann says significantly:

"What a dirty trade mine is. How I regret the days when I was a movie actor!"

Since Brest-Litovsk the Bolsheviks are not very proud. They feel ridiculous and are unostentatious at the side tables. Movie actors, newspaper reporters, half-baked students and ignorant peasant soldiers aspired to raise up a government for a great nation; they thought to appease Prussian war lust by non-resistance. Now they sit at the small tables in the cafes and long to be movie actors again! How deeply stained with the crime of folly is the history of Russia for the last eight months!

When reports of a German peace move or of a theater crowd in Prague making a demonstration against the kaiser are received it is time to put on the gas mask against enemy propaganda.

THE RAILWAY RATE ADVANCE.

There will be opposition to the advance of railway rates, of course. If there were to be delay until there was no opposition, there never would be an advance. The advance in the government's way, the short way, is better than the advance in the commission's way, if there is to be an advance. Shivering on the brink is folly. A quick plunge will be followed by an invigorating reaction. It will be better for the country because it will be better for the railways. Their interests are indivisible, not opposed. Without efficient railways there is ahead embarrassment both for domestic trade and foreign war. No starved horse ever drew a heavy load, and the railways are a starved horse behind a very heavy load.

The advance needed is more than enough to pay the advanced wages, more than enough to pay all increased costs. The advance must be large enough to make up the retarded betterments which it was the policy of the commission not to allow to be made from rates. When the emphasis was placed on the reduction of rates rather than on the increase of facilities, it was the theory that money should be borrowed for betterments, which it was held, are properly a charge against capital, not income. But when the emphasis is put on the increase of facilities for trade it makes little difference whether they come from rates or capital. They cannot come from capital now because the credit of the railways was reduced to the point of insolvency to the largest totals ever known. They must come from rates, the only alternative to taxes under present conditions. There would be greater opposition to little less than a billion-dollar increase of taxes than there would be to a like increase of rates. The taxes could not be shifted, the rates will be shifted, and it is likely will be advanced by more than the sums the producers must pay.

There are profits concealed in the rate increase, as well as burdens put on shippers. It ought not to be. The increase of prices ought not to be larger than the increase of rates. In fact, the increase of rates ought hardly to be perceptible in prices to consumers, so small a part of costs are railway charges. But the very shippers who object to the advance will find a legitimate advantage as well as irregular profits. Trade will be stimulated enough to recoup the burden of the costs apart from the receiving of rates by price increases. The advance of rates will enable the railways to finance the moves without over-burdening the "revolving fund" of the War Finance Corporation. There is more than enough for them to do, and the restoration of railway credit from railway resources is equitable.—New York Times.

NOTES and COMMENT

Some of the higher-ups in railroad, who didn't think at first that Government control was going to be much of a shower, now are in a way to be convinced that it is going to be a real downpour.

One of the results of the war to which attention has been called is the dropping off in the importation of elephants. These animals come from Africa, and their importation for circus and zoo purposes was quite a commerce. As in the interruption in other supplies, we will have to hunt a substitute.

The Turks have put forth signs of having had nearly enough of the kaiser thing. That may be what Emperor William has in mind. He may be effective there, but he generally makes a mess of it when he attempts to deal with civilized people and incurs the kaiser's displeasure.

The despatches are to the effect that Hughes will have a free hand in the aviation probe, and the country is thus assured that it is in a way to learn just how it is.

In the closing of I. W. W. headquarters the authorities are going to the root of the evil. These people have been allowed all too long to keep open house where malapatriots might foregather.

Disorders in Bohemia because of dissatisfaction with the war and its entanglements are reported. The Hun may go in and restore order in his ruthless way, but the zone of dissatisfaction is widening, and soon ruthlessness is not likely to cope with it.

The enthusiasm over the Red Cross drive is merely the vent of American patriotism. If there still are Huns expecting the national spirit to subsidize on its soldiers encountering the realities of war and facing Hun ruthlessness they should now be able to realize their error.

The Mills girls, who went picking peas when the alarm was sounded that the same were going to ruin because of lack of pickers, illustrated the true American spirit. It is to lend a hand where assistance is needed.

The conclusion is justified that the aviation department is going in for more production and less prediction.

The dearth of rubber is represented to be worrying the Germans more than any other material shortage. If they could put the elastic qualities of their reports as to military victories to commercial use they would have an over-supply. Such reports are all notoriously stretched.

The Santa Rosa Republican hints at which might have been: "It is easy to say how things might have happened, but can you imagine how history would have been changed had Adam been chewing gum when Eve offered him that apple?"

Dramatic criticism from the Redding Searchlight: "Theda Bara in 'Cleopatra' must have been a true patriot. She Hooverizes on her clothing."

Marysville Appeal on propinquity: "Californians who have an idea that Germany cannot reach their state should take cognizance of the fact that China and Japan are worried over the situation in the East where the kaiser's armies are making steady inroads. Japan is not very far away from California, and Marysville. This is your war."

The Chico Enterprise considers the other side: "Stray Americans who may be left in Berlin have doubtless long ago changed their names from Jones and Robinson to Dinkelspiel and Katzenjammer."

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

A Clovis man sold his forty-two acre vineyard the other day for $28,500, just about $680 an acre. He bought the place a year ago for $19,000. It has been predicted that the price for bearing vineyard property will reach $1,000 an acre.—Fresno Mirror.

Since President Smith of the First National Bank has positively denied that he will run for the assembly, some timid and halting ones may be encouraged to peep.—Chico Enterprise.

At a Fifth street restaurant nowadays, when you call for a hamburger steak, the waiter shouts to the fry cook "Liberty steak!" And the idea has caught on so well that most of the patrons ask for a "Liberty steak," instead of what the Germans saw fit to christen "hamburger."—San Diego Union.

A Meridian farmer has a suggestion about the proposed employment of women to do harvest work. Before that will be necessary, he thinks the lighter employments in cities such as waiters, handling elevators, etc., might be turned over to women, and men thus released for the more arduous work of harvesting. "And," said this farmer, "I've made a new rule for myself when I am served by men in these lighter capacities. I do not tip them, as I once did."—Bakersfield Californian.

Now Los Angeles takes it all back. San Francisco has been acquitted of the theft of one military cantonment. It all came out during a welfare commission, hearing in Los Angeles when Mr. Milbank Johnson of that city admitted that he was the real culprit and had gone to Washington and requested the government officials not to place a military camp near the southern metropolis because such a move would be a real menace to the city of the city. Never mind the fact, Camp Fremont? But aren't you glad you came here?—San Jose Mercury-Herald.

MASTER—"More pep, brute; you've got to win this war!"
SLAVE—"What have I left undone, my lord?"

THE SINGLE TAXERS.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

I am so fully in accord with the concluding paragraphs of your editorial on "Single Taxism Again" that I am loath to take issue with some of its earlier statements. But it is only fair to the Single Tax cause and to your readers that they should be informed that neither Luke Nor nor his magazine "Everyman," nor yet Daniel Kiefer, speaks with authority for the Single Taxers of America, who by a vast majority, if given the opportunity, would repudiate their attitude toward the war.

Mr. "North"—for that is only his pen name—and his personal propaganda, have been a bone of contention for the last year or two in the Single Tax ranks not only of California but of the entire country. All admit his apparent zeal for a great truth, but there was widespread doubt as to his tact and good sense even before America entered the war. And the resignation of Mr. Kiefer as chairman of the National Single Tax League has been openly demanded in the columns of the leading Single Tax publication of the United States.

Nor is the National Single Tax League at present endowed by Mr. Fels or by the Fels estate. Mrs. Fels, its administrator, withdrew her support from the organization some two years ago and is making her contributions to the cause through other channels.

All of which, of course, is aside from the Single Tax issue. The philosophy of Henry George must be applied on all or on some basis or falsely irrespective of the faults and virtues of his followers.

The essence of the Single Tax doctrine is that every man has a right to what he produces and that no man has a right to what he does not produce except that all men have equal rights in the earth, their common heritage. This is simply democracy followed to its logical conclusion and to its only possible full realization for the last year or two in the Single Tax ranks not only of California but of the entire country. All admit his apparent zeal for a great truth, but there was widespread doubt as to his tact and good sense even before America entered the war.

TODAY 20 YEARS AGO

Thirty carloads of troops from Pennsylvania were fed by the Red Cross League upon their arrival here from the east. Mrs. I. L. Requa was head of the emergency committee and had a score of women as assistants in serving refreshments to the men.

Ernest W. and Arthur P. Snow, formerly of Company E, Fifth Infantry of this city, joined the Oregon regimental band and left on the steamer Australia for Manila.

The First Congregational church declined Sexton Lewis' offer of a national flag, which he stipulated should fly from the church steeple.

As a result of the Masonic festival, more than $30,000 was realized for the Masonic home at Decoto.

TEXAS' EXAMPLE.

Texas, in this voluntary determination not to consume wheat flour, is doing what a number of other communities have done, but we would like to see this spirit of sacrifice so general throughout the entire country that it might be made a matter of public record, and thus give encouragement to the men in the trenches and to our allies in Europe.—Manufacturers Record.

Says Husband Spent Money On Women

According to the allegations in the complaint of Mrs. Jeanette M. Jarvis in her suit for divorce, Walter D. Jarvis, her husband, not only spent his money gambling, but his wife had to use the savings to take up the checks he wrote to settle his gambling debts.

She further charges that he frequented cafes with other women, paying for their entertainment with money realized from the sale of their furniture.

Jennie Gandy charges cruelty in a complaint against Pietro Gandy, whom she claims makes $200 a month
as a garbage collector.

KISS AND MAKE UP: COLES ARE HAPPY AGAIN

Judge W. M. Conley, presiding in department 8 of the Superior Court, maintained his reputation as the great reconciliator today in the suit of Mrs.
Frances L. Cole against her husband, Charles F. Cole, for separate maintenance. Accepting the fatherly advice of the jurist, the husband and wife embraced and left the courtroom in arm, having pledged to forget their differences and avoid in future a recurrence of misunderstandings by mutually frank and open confession and avowal of every truant thought.

The 6-year-old son of Mrs. Cole by a former marriage was the cause of the trouble, it was said, the boy being somewhat too apt at mimicry of some of his step-father's mannerisms. The husband had said that he would not live in the house with the boy and they had parted.

When the matter came before Judge Conley he believed the cause of the dispute to be too trivial and took the parties to task for not exercising the mutual indulgence necessary to reconciling the trouble. Attorneys Lin S.
Church for the defendant and R. E.
Gaylord for Mrs. Cole suggested a conference with the judge and they went into chambers. Afterward the husband and wife conferred and upon their return declared that they could not make up.

SETTLES STRIKE OF WAREHOUSES IN QUICK TIME

Quick settlement of the strike of 700 or more warehousemen in the bay district was effected by Federal Commissioner Ralph P. Merritt and the men who went out yesterday went back to work this morning. The men struck for an increase from $4.00 to $4.50 a day and a half for overtime. By the terms of the settlement they will get $4 for a nine-hour day from May 1 until June 1 and 50 cents an hour straight thereafter.
The overtime question will be settled contingent to a decision by the Railroad Commission on an application of the warehouse owners for an increase in rates.

Every Job to Be Scrutinized Is It Useful? U. S. to Decide

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The far-reaching character of the new "work or fight" regulations under which the government proposes to put every man of draft age into some useful employment or into the army probably will not be fully realized by the country until the effects of its operation start.

The sweeping character of the government's purpose to put every able man of draft age either into the army or some useful occupation is indicated by Provost Marshal General Crowder's official announcement, but inasmuch as every case will come up for determination on its merits as the operation of the regulation goes forward it will become apparent that the scope of the government's action practically is limitless.

The outgrowth of a plan conceived and known as "putting the nation to work," the new regulations probably will be more and more closely applied as the war goes on, or until it becomes necessary to raise the draft age above 21. Military authorities are of the opinion now that it will not be necessary to raise the draft age and that the man power of the nation is sufficient if those now of draft age are fully utilized.

The first effect of the new regulations will be to drive idlers to work or into the army. Moreover it will be the idlers' own responsibility to get a useful job before July 1. Then will come the determination of what constitutes useless employment, and this, it is pointed out, will come in for closer and closer determination as the war goes on. An employment reasonably useful under present conditions might, by the developments of the war, come to be considered useless in comparison with the greater needs of the war.

SUPERIOR COURT TO TRY AUTO SPEEDER

As the aftermath of a collision between two automobiles near San Leandro Sunday, in which three persons were hurt, Raymond Hummer, grocer's clerk of this city, will be tried in the Superior Court on a charge of violating the motor traffic law. In his examination before Justice Frank Munich, Jr., in San Leandro yesterday, it was alleged that Hummer, who was in one of the colliding machines, drove on without giving assistance to the occupants of the other car, which was overturned.
His arrest was brought about by the motorman and conductor of a Hayward car who stopped and assisted the victims of the smash. When the car reached San Leandro the motorman noticed Hummer in a damaged and stalled machine and notified the authorities who arrested Hummer.

Coast League Not Likely To Operate More Than a Month on New Draft Rule

General Sentiment Seems Against Effort of Professional Ball to Continue

By Carl E. Brazier

Another month of Pacific Coast League baseball looks to be the limit of 1918 activities in that organization following the new draft ruling from Washington which requires all men in the draft age to be in the service of the colors or in some "useful" occupation before July. No definite ruling has been handed down as to whether baseball will be listed definitely in the ranks of non-useful occupations, but the informal expressions of opinion from Washington seem to point to baseball being included.

Opinions of eastern baseball magnates who have been closely in touch with the war developments also would seem to indicate that they are prepared to close their gates for the duration of the war. In fact, the general public sentiment seems to be that professional baseball should not wait for a test case, but should show its co-operation at this time by setting a date at which all pennant races will close and by establishing bureaus to co-operate in finding useful occupations for the players. These are the opinions expressed by baseball leaders in the east, and there is no question but that they will be reflected by the Coast League magnates.

The draft ruling is not effective until July 1, but with players dropping away from the clubs and going to other jobs before that date the Coast League could hardly expect to operate right up to the end of June. If on the other hand, the Coast Leaguers should vote to close up in another month and in the meantime help their players to secure other jobs, the players would be more likely to stick with the clubs and keep up the standard of ball until closing day. Unless some such policy is followed, the Coast League players will at once start to drop off and go to the shipyards, to the various industrial plants around the bay, etc., and to seek other occupations which will give them the chance to play once-a-week baseball in the Shipyard, Central or Mission Baseball Leagues that are now well under way.

YOUNGSTERS NOT LIKELY.
The suggestion has been made that the Coast League could continue by using players under the draft age along with some of the players over the draft age. There would be possibly fifteen or twenty players in the league who are above the draft age. Players below the draft age are available in goodly numbers, especially among the military service men. Considerable difficulty would be experienced in signing them up to baseball contracts with the knowledge that just as soon as they reached the draft age they would probably be sent into military service with no option of securing a "useful" occupation. Baseball experience would hardly fit them for any industrial work into which they could step when they attained draft age.

Then again public sentiment would probably be against these youngsters being turned solely into baseball channels when the draft ruling shows on the face of it that every available person of working ability is needed in other lines. The fans will want their baseball and their sports, but the independent baseball leagues will furnish about all the baseball they will want in these days, and the new development of the league would be sure to take care of all the other needs of the fans.

TOO GREAT AN UPHEAVAL.
Even if the Coast League should find it possible to continue with young players under the draft age, there would still be the employees of the ball parks and all the other employees of baseball clubs who would be subject to the "work or fight" rule. Not only the entire baseball machinery of the various clubs but also the support of the fans, but the entire organization of the league would be so shaken up that it is hard to see how anybody could hope to keep it going.

Coast League officials are reluctant in expressing any opinions at the present time, but as dispatch after dispatch from the East tells of major league leaders declaring their readiness to close up with out any argument, the sentiment among Coast League leaders seems to be taking a decided stand towards suspension of operations for the duration of the war.

Whatever is the fate of the Coast League, whatever is the fate of the fight game, harness racing and other lines of sports that may be classed as non-useful occupations, Pacific Coast sport-lovers, and particularly those in the immediate bay district, are sure to have plenty to keep up their interest. In the East the Midwinter League, the Shipbuilders

What the Baseball Leaders Say About New Draft Ruling

"Baseball leaders have been going on the theory that the government was encouraging baseball," said Al Baum, president of the Coast League, this morning. "On this theory, we had been that as long as theaters, entertainments and other forms of amusement are not specified as non-useful occupations, baseball will not be so listed. But of course if the government classes baseball as non-useful, we could not try to continue for a minute."

"The new draft ruling is not effective until July 1, but I believe that an immediate decision as to the position of baseball will make a difference in the minds of the players," continued Baum. "This would be necessary to protect the baseball interests, for ball players could not be expected to go ahead without a definite idea of just where they stood until July when if the decision went against baseball the players would suddenly find themselves with no opportunity to find 'useful' occupation. Baseball must await a formal ruling from Washington and I believe that such a ruling will be made within the next few days."

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—B. B. Johnson, president of the American League, in discussing the new draft regulations, was quoted here as follows: "I do not believe the government has any intention of wiping out baseball altogether, but if I had my way we would close every theater, ball park and every place of recreation in the country and make the people realize that they are in the most terrible war in the history of the world."

PITTSBURGH, May 24.—"Everything must be done to win the war," said President John K. Tener today, upon learning of the new order of Provoost General Crowder, "and if baseball is a sport as classified in this new order, it must be closed, and the season brought to an end."

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 24.—"The most consistent," said E. W. Dickerson, president of the Western League, "but of course we shall comply, and gladly. The Western League would not lose more than twenty players at the most, as forty-four are already in the service."

SEATTLE, Wash., May 24.—"Organized baseball will be the last institution to stand against anything that will hasten the end of the war," declared Robert Blomquist, president of the Pacific Coast International League today, when told of Washington's draft ruling. "If the government wishes we will gladly suspend baseball and devote our efforts toward winning the war."

Col. Jacob Ruppert: "The war first, baseball last."

Col. C. H. Ebbetts: "Whatever action the government sees fit to take will be endorsed by the National League."

Harry Hempstead: "We will gladly adjust ourselves to any order the government may find it necessary to issue."

William F. Baker: "If our players are needed to perform important duties we will gladly give them up."

VALLEJO HIGH IS BEATEN.
VALLEJO, May 24.—The Vallejo High School baseball nine was defeated at the Crocker-Hartman field yesterday afternoon by the Marine Island Hospital club to the tune of 16 to 1. Mini was on the firing line for the locals, and his offerings were hit by the Marine Island players, but the lack of support which he received, the play of the Marine Island boys, and it is expected that by the end of the month they will be in a position to give the hill rollers from the navy yard a good contest.

aters, which received the same consideration as baseball in the war tax, was the hope of those prominent in the same, but it was admitted the game, as well as every professional sport, is standing on insecure ground.

There is little likelihood that the parks will be closed on the initiative of the owners for such a step would be more costly than to continue, even with attendance falling off on account of disintegration of the teams. Overhead expenses are tremendous at all big league parks and at most minor league parks there is such an outlay that suspension would be ruinous.

The huge National League park at Boston would represent a loss of a loss of thousands if allowed to remain idle. Its owners would be faced with a loss far greater than would be the case if allowed to continue. The Polo grounds represents a great expense. The Yankees pay a rental there of $55,000 annually.

It is hoped among followers of baseball here that test cases will work out the salvation of the game, taking some players, but leaving sufficient for the magnates to continue their business. Other sports can hardly fare so well. Football, with its health, is in a better place. The old man, who has been the unofficial coach of Stanford teams for eleven years, died from natural causes in San Francisco Tuesday night. He was 85 years of age.

Gardner Is in Great Form When Covotes

Take Edge On Series

SACRAMENTO, May 24.—The Sacramento Corvets had little trouble in taking an edge on the series yesterday afternoon with tall Harry Gardner occupying the box for them. Sacramento defeated the Salt Lake Lakers by a 5-1 score. The Salt Lake team by no means pitched behind him to win any ordinary ball game. Gardner did enough good pitching to beat the team almost without the help of his mates.

He held the visitors runless for four innings, and then the Corvets took things easy and allowed the Salt Lake Lakers to put over a couple of runs. Until the ninth only three hits were scored. In the ninth, however, these were scratchy one. He fanned all three batters in the fourth inning, with Buddy Ratter in the fourth, and the Corvets won the entire route for the Salt Lake club, and still only seven hits were made off him.

A detailed black and white illustration of a large, curved, segmented object, possibly a fossil or a biological structure. The object is shown in a curved, almost U-shaped profile. It features a series of parallel, slightly raised segments or ridges that run along its length. The texture appears rough and granular. The object is set against a plain white background.

Revelations of a Wife

by Adele Garrison

All work and no play makes Jill a very dull girl, as every one knows. Even the most pessimistic who dwells among us will have to acknowledge that the Jills who were judged were pretty, dainty, vain butterflies were misjudged—that after all the prettiness and daintiness and vanity were but a thin veneer and they were just waiting for some great flash to come along to prick its smooth surface. Those other women—Jills, too—whose art or books or family or house or clothes or clubs bound them within the narrow horizon must have needed the great shock of war and necessity to break the letters and throw them emancipated into the free life of the world. At any rate the women of Oakland have been living during the past few months. They have been working. They have been accomplishing. They began with no training, with no consciousness of ability with no previous ideas of organization. They have emerged. The Superfluous Shop, the Defenders' Club, the various branches of the Red Cross are the monument which they have erected from out their serene, blissful world of small things. The bridge tables have been folded away. The motor has been devoted to duty, not pleasure. Teas and dinners and luncheons have been taboo for the most part save as they were inspired by some depleted treasury which demanded refilling. And Jill, not used to even the slightest change in the laws of California have provided for their women workers, yet finding them all too short in which to accomplish, is weary indeed. In short, Jill is finding that unless something happens she is going to become very dull.

That is the reason that early next month—just so soon as the big drive for the Red Cross is over—plans will be in the making for a huge garden party. The list of guests will be a notable one in that each woman will have her own special invitation. The list will include those who have served with the Red Cross, the Superfluous Shop, the Defenders' Club, are arranging the big playtime for themselves before the work is laid away for the summer. Just now the garden with its basket luncheon and its unique features will be staged has not been determined. It may be that one of the mistresses of one of the large estates about the city will throw open her gardens. It may be that the scores of prominent women will go to the garden in some more public spot. At any rate, a full day of playtime promised to offset the work of the past winter and spring.

Mrs. Frank C. Havens has transformed the spacious garage at "Wildwood" into a group of attractive apartment flats, the possession of which became a matter of keen rivalry among those who were in on the secret. "Wildwood" covers many acres, and at times "Wildwood" is a lonely place. It is the reason Mrs. Havens hit upon the clever scheme which gives her a few and very congenial neighbors. Moreover, for they have not only comfortable and convenient and beautiful apartments, but a lovely, miniature forest through which to roam. Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Havens' sister, is occupying one, coming over from San Francisco for the summer. A little later Mrs. Maxwell is planning to build a bungalow on one of the slightly lots on the Piedmont hills.

When a group of English army officers, campaign weary, come to the Coast for diversion, they afford ample excuse for any sort of pleasure which the local smart set may plan. At least it was the case who gave inspiration to that delightful dinner dance for which Mrs. William Thornton White threw open her Vernon Heights residence a few nights ago. In accordance with the new war standards, the function was kept along lines beautifully simple. Covers were laid for 24 guests, including the visiting officers.

Tomorrow evening Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Resborough are entertaining eighteen friends to their charming home for a dinner which will vary the long, hard week of war service. Both the host and hostess are active Red Cross workers who together have rolled up an honorable record. It is Red Cross campaigners whom they have asked to find their places about the dinner board. The merry party will adjourn later in the evening to the Municipal Auditorium to join in the Jitney Jazz dance.

Miss Gladys Robinson was a hostess of the afternoon, summoning a congenial group of girls to do honor to Miss Adrienne Denison, one of the popular brides-elect of the season. Miss Robinson entertained those who were asked to meet the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Denison at the family home in the East Oakland hills, assisted by her mother, Mrs. T. C. Robinson. The complimented guest is the fiancée of Herbert Orbachson.

One of the handsomely appointed affairs of the week was the dinner at which Mrs. Charles Butters was hostess.

Teardrops were always an abomination of mine in the years before my marriage. I suppose it is a "judgment on me," as my little mother used to say, that I seemed to be unable to control my tears when Dicky was unusually unkind. I had hardly imagined myself to be! I could not recognize myself in the nervous, weeping creature on the bed. But the anger which I felt toward my husband helped me to control my tears, and my mother, I am sure, had carefully put on some powder to hide the ravages of tears, and donned my hat and coat. I had no very clear notion of what I was going to do, or where I was going. One thing I must get clear, I was going to leave Dicky. I could not endure his presence for the rest of the afternoon.

On the other hand, I did not want to give him a chance to go away and leave me alone with his mother, something which he was quite capable of doing, if it happened to occur to him. That, to me, was a more terrifying possibility than leaving Dicky's anger.

"Where are you going?" His voice was faintly a snarl.

"I don't know," I replied truthfully and coldly. "I am going out for the rest of the afternoon. Perhaps you will be able to control yourself when I return."

It was not the most tactful speech in the world. But I was past caring whether Dicky was angry or pleased. I am not very quick to wrath, but when it is once roused my anger is intense.

"You know you are lying," he said. "You are going to see this precious cousin-brother-lover whichever he may be."

My fear that Katie or his mother would here him overcame the primitive impulse I had to average the incident words with him.

"Now, a man you!"

AN UNWELCOME INTERRUPTION

"You will apologize for that language to me when I come back," I said icily. "I do not know whether I shall go to bid Jack good-by or not. I have no idea what I shall do, save that I must get away from here as quickly as possible. If you have any sense of the ordinary decencies of life you will lower your voice. I do not suppose you care to have either your mother or Katie overhear this edifying conversation."

"You care about what my mother says on Tuesday evening at Rose-lawn?"

That beautiful Cleopatra, who since her marriage had made her home in Honolulu. Her arrival had been the signal for a delightful round of pleasure, old friends arranging a series of informal reunions. Mrs. Fillmore White offered Mrs. Maxton the company of a luncheon. Mrs. Maxton accepted, and a coterie of guests who enjoyed a season in Hawaii a year or so ago.

When one is in possession of a lovely country place where peace and quietness are sure, why should one enjoy it? So has asked Mrs. Percival Walker of herself and friends, and finding no one to give her a negative answer, she is packing her household goods and the first of June will find her happily established near Los Gatos. Mrs. Walker plans to spend the entire season out of town. She will close her Piedmont residence and devote the months which are devoted to vacation. Perhaps once in a while town will lure her, but it will be for only a day or two. For the most part she will offer the lure of the friends and the pleasures of the country. This winter a large number of house guests will enjoy Mrs. Walker's hospitality before her return.

N. S. and D. of S. F. Hold Memorial May 27

The San Francisco Parlor of the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West will hold their annual memorial exercises in honor of the deceased members on Monday evening, May 27th, in Native Sons' hall, 430 Mason street.

Entertainment will be delivered by Miss Grace Stoetner, Grand President N. S. G. W., and W. F. Toomey, the incoming Grand President N. S. G. W. All are invited to attend.

To Present Pupils at Piano Recital

Helen Anderson Brouse will present a group of her pupils at a piano recital to be given tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at her home, 108 Hillside avenue, Piedmont, and has invited those interested in musical work for children and young people to help. The program will open with "The Star Spangled Banner" and close with "La Marseillaise." Those who will take part are Helen Potter, Margaret Brann, Olive Brann, Harriet Hume, Raymond Hume, Marion Martin, Doris Martin, Yvonne Winslow, Garth Winslow, Alan Ede, Clinton Eastwood and Albert Brouse.

REINS LOOSED SUDDENLY ON SELF CONTROL

By HARRY L. SULLY.

"Is the previous record of Malcolm McGown, slayer of the man who betrayed his daughter, such that it would appear he will make good if given probation?"

This is the second factor of fundamental importance, in the consideration of the adult Probation Officer Leonard Compton, in determining the fate of McGown. In arriving at an answer to this question, the past criminal record, the social, industrial, family, and medico-psychological record of the applicant for probation are considered.

All of these but the medico-psychological may be quickly disposed of, and have been disposed of by Compton. McGown has no previous criminal record against his name. His social standing is admittedly good. His employers have without exception spoken well of him. His family life has been praised and his family has stood loyally by him in this distress. The information in Compton's hands up to this point is favorable to McGown.

But in the medico-psychological record the adult probation officer has faced the most difficult and most of the serious problem in connection with this case.

VICTIM OF CAESAR'S MALADY.

McGown is a sufferer from epilepsy, the "falling sickness" of the ancients with which Julius Caesar was afflicted, a disease whose causes are not understood today as they were to the Greeks when the symptoms were first described by Hipparchus and Aristotle.

On the night of the shooting of Groden, McGown had a severe epileptic seizure. During his trial such attacks were an ever-recurring event. Two nights ago, after discussing the crime he had committed and the causes leading up to it, he suffered four or five attacks during the night.

Is there an intimate connection between the crime committed and epilepsy?

And if there is, what bearing should it have upon the action of the adult probation officer?

The state of the nervous system of an epileptic is forcibly described by E. C. Spitzka, one of the well-known neurologists and authorities on insanity and nervous diseases, as comparable to that of an elastic band, which, being on the stretch continually, is apt to rebound violently when one end is let go. In the normal state the nervous system is not so great, and loss of control may not result in so violent a rebound.

Here we have what may prove to be an explanation of some of the mysterious facts in the McGown case. It is not that McGown was a madman, but that he was a man who had done the thing that the man had done, is the question continually asked by those who hold that the prosecution was right in its contention that McGown shot in cold blood after having given money to be used in the defense of his daughter through her trouble.

The answer is to be found in the character of the man. He is an epileptic, an unusually mild-mannered, mild-tempered man. Persons familiar with his family life have spoken of his kindness to his children, almost greater than that of the mother.

RESTRAINT IS EXERCISED.

Groden, if having confessed with tears what he had done, having asked permission to marry Margaret McGown, having cried out again and again that he was sorry for what he had done, was not shot in the first place by a madman. The father restrained himself. He thought of the disgrace an act of violence would bring upon his family by making public the facts about his daughter. The girl, who was to marry Groden, and the thought of yoking her, even for a short time, to such a man was intolerable. All he asked was that Groden should get out of Oakland and keep out of the lives of the McGowns.

Saturday night the girl had fled from home. All day Sunday and all Sunday night McGown was under nervous strain. Monday he learned from her own lips that she was dead. She had died and now Groden had wrecked her life. Monday her words were confirmed by Groden. At that time he gave Groden three days to get out of town, threatening to arrest him, threatening this and that.

All this time Groden lingered in Oakland, pleading to be given control over the girl as her husband, threatening the family with death, threatening them with what was worse than death to McGown—disgrace and disfigurement. So the nervous tension of the restraint McGown had placed upon himself continued from Saturday, over Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

All this time Groden had pleaded to marry Margaret. But Tuesday night he had been drinking, and boasting in saloons that he would marry the American girl, boasting of what he had done Tuesday night, when she had died and now Groden had wrecked her life. Monday her words were confirmed by Groden. At that time he gave Groden three days to get out of town, threatening to arrest him, threatening this and that.

ONSET OF EPILEPTIC SYNDROME.

Here is a state described that is familiar to the alienist. The nervous tension of three days and nights of worry and anxiety is beginning to near its breaking point. In this man of quiet disposition but of unstable nervous equilibrium, a sufferer from epilepsy. Here is a state described that will be recognized by the epileptologist as perhaps bordering on the symptoms of pre-epileptic period of those sufferers who give warning to the expert of their condition.

Then came the minutes leading to the final flare-up. McGown was led to the upper hallway of the "Bacon building." Groden's manner had changed from pleading to a demand. "I don't have to get out of town," McGown declares he said. "I've got you where I want you. I'll tell the world about the girl."

The taunting voice, the defiant manner, the threat—all these loosed the impulses to violent action that had been tugging for release in McGown's heart and mind for three days and nights.

The nervous state apparently had reached its culmination. Restraint was thrown aside. McGown shot again and again until he saw the body of Groden on the floor before him. Then for a moment only his normal thought processes reasserted themselves when he telephoned to his wife what he had done, and walked two blocks to the police station to give himself up.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO WITH MALCOLM MCGOWN?

Here are some of the letters received today giving the view of the public as to whether Malcolm McGown, slayer of R. J. Groden, should be granted probation. The TRIBUNE Blue Bird Bureau will welcome an expression of opinion on either side of the question. Letters without proper signatures have been received, but will not be printed. The name of the writer, if known to The TRIBUNE, may be withheld, however, if sufficient reason exists for doing so.

HERE IS PLEA FROM ONE WHO KNOWS HIM

"Blue Bird Bureau, Oakland TRIBUNE, Dear Sir: I have known Mr. McGown for a long time, and think he should be set free. F. W. Nunnemacher, 11 Arbor Drive, Piedmont."

THINKS DEAD MAN RECEIVED HIS DESERTS

"Mr. Leonard Compton, Adult Probation Officer. Dear Sir: I consider that if Malcolm McGown is justly dealt with he will be set free at once. The dead man deserved worse than shooting. He was a fiend. The suffering he caused the whole family must be almost unbearable. I surely would much rather a girl of mine were shot than have to endure it. Mrs. H. Hansen, 1512 Ninety-Sixth avenue."

BELIEVES HIM FIT MAN ANYWHERE IN WORLD

"To the Editor Oakland TRIBUNE. In regard to Malcolm McGown I wish to say: An innocent man is being condemned by lack of justice. From all the evidence I heard while listening to the entire case in court, that man should have been freed. The jury should have remained out only a few minutes instead of hours. The case certainly demanded public opinion to gain full justice. If one could only imagine the feelings of Mr. McGown and his family, when they learned of that crawling reptile of a man, Groden, of his brutality and deceit—he certainly got what he deserved—only it should have been hanging. Mr. McGown, I consider, is a man of honor—therefore he is fit man any place in the world. Hoping to hear of Mr. McGown's freedom, not merely probation, I am, yours truly, George Allison, Hotel Touraine, Oakland."

LIKE OVERSEAS HEROES

"The Blue Bird Bureau, Oakland TRIBUNE. The public is asked through your columns as to what punishment should be given the father who recently shot the betrayer of his little daughter. While we are sending so many of our brave young boys over seas to stamp out just such beasts as the man who was forced to give his life for his brutal crime, I will tell you what one elderly woman thinks, and that is that Malcolm McGown should be given a distinguished service medal and also a purse of money from other fathers to help him recover from the effects of his recent trouble. Very truly yours, Mrs. B. M. Custer, Oakland, Cal."

SAYS THE LAW PROVIDES REMEDY FOR SUCH CASES

"Editor Oakland TRIBUNE. Dear Sir: As some of my friends are friends of the McGown family, I would prefer to have my name withheld, as I do not believe McGown should be set at liberty. If he had killed Groden when he first learned of his deed I would feel more charitable to him. But when he let him live for forty-eight hours after he knew what he had done to Margaret, he had time to get out of town, and have forced him to get out of town."

course against a man guilty of a felony who could be sent to state's prison.

"The law provided a remedy, and one that would have brought less sorrow, disgrace and notoriety upon the family than the way chosen by McGown. Freeing McGown would justify others in taking the law into their own hands. If the penalty for the crime committed by Groden is not severe enough, it can be amended. But we cannot have men going about shooting down others without facing some penalty for this infraction of the law, or the law itself will fall in public estimation, and chaos and anarchy will result. Respectfully yours, (Signature withheld by request)."

Dainty Dishes Made with Douglas Oil

THIS new salad oil, made from the heart of corn, should also be used for cooking. Dainty dishes are made more tempting by its delicate flavor. You can heat it sizzling hot without a suspicion of smoke or smell.

Use it for shortening, for seasoning, for frying. Every need of cooking is served by

Douglas Oil

For dressing salads Douglas Oil has no equal. You will like it better than olive oil. It costs about half as much.

Ask for the Douglas Recipe Book

While Douglas Oil is used exactly like olive oil in salad making, it affords a wealth of opportunity for the making of new and delicious dishes. We have prepared a special recipe book, attractively bound for your cook book library.

Food experts, noted for skill in cookery, have compiled standard recipes and invented and collected new ones. Many are based on old-world delicacies which have helped win fame for European cooks.

This book is free—you can secure one from your dealer when you buy a can of Douglas Oil. Write direct to us or our selling representatives and a copy will be sent you by return mail.

Lemon Juice For Freckles

Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons, and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Advertisement.

So many skin troubles only need a little Resinol to heal them for good

For that itching patch of rash or eczema, try Resinol Ointment, before the trouble has a chance to become serious. You will doubtless be surprised to find how quickly it soothes and cools your irritated skin. It is so effective that it has been a standard skin treatment among physicians for many years.

All druggists sell Resinol. Trial Free. Write Dept. 7-S, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

Money-Back Smith Store 100 Per Cent

A "100 per cent" contribution to the Red Cross drive was made today by the store of "Money Back Smith," the employees, from managers to delivery boys, subscribing a day's wage to the Red Cross.

The employees of the store were "100 per cent efficient" in the Liberty Bond drive, and each employee has pledged himself to buy a certain number of thrift stamps per week. The store's salesmen have also assisted in selling stamps to the public.

COUNCIL TO ACT ON PAY.
Unless the civil service board takes "satisfactory" action on the demands of the employees on the municipal force for a general increase in wages, the city council will be prepared to act independently next Wednesday. This was decided upon by the council today when the matter of the credentialed demands and practical ultimatum was brought up by Mayor Davis.

LICENSE DENIED.
Upon the recommendation of Chief of Police Nedderman the city council today denied the application of the Gold Standard Social Club of 708 Willow street, for a liquor license. The club failed twice previously to obtain a license. Chief Nedderman said that the club was not bona-fide.

FLAG IS FLOWN.

DRAFT BOARDS SEE HUGE TASK

Local draft boards are staggered with the colossal task ahead in the new "utility draft" which is to induct into Federal war service all men in useless or unprofitable professions. The problem of determining what constitutes utility to the war program is said to be one of the gigantic questions of the present draft machine and one that is incapable of solution save on a broad general basis.

Already store heads, employers of all kinds and men themselves are beginning as to what segregation is to be made. One type of clerk for instance will be an absolute necessity, and the man next to him capable of elimination. Mechanical trades, electricians, plumbers, and other while auditors, cashiers and financial men of all kinds present the greatest difficulties of all.

In the absence of instructions as yet from Washington the boards are unable to supply any definite information on the subject. The policy, as generally understood, is to weed slackers out of all professions.

In addition to the "utility draft," the government has just issued an order that all farming implements, tools, farm utensils, machinery and equipment be registered with the law department of the license division, of the United States Food Administration, not later than June 20.

The registration work which is to tabulate all youths who have become 21 years of age since June of last year, will start on June 5 of this year at 7 o'clock and end at 9 o'clock of the same night. Persons living in draft division districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 will register at their board headquarters in the city hall. Those living in division district No. 7, will register at that board headquarters at 7307 Las. Fourteenth street.

Mars and Cupid Entente Carries Hearts by Storm

MISS RUTH I. WHEELER

BERKELEY, May 24.—A romance which began six years ago when both were attending school in Berkeley is disclosed in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Ruth I. Wheeler, daughter of Mrs. Grattan H. Wheeler of Northbrae, to Corporal Lewis G. Thunen, 186th Depot Brigade, now at Camp Lewis, American Lake.

TELLS OF EXTRA COST IN SALARIES

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—The adjourned hearing of the transbay ferry rate increases, was resumed today before the State Railroad Commission following a denial of motions for a continuance by Attorney B. D. Marx Greene, representing the Berkeley commuters.

Chief Clerk A. L. Pickard of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal system presented additional figures to the commission of increased operative cost during 1918. Pickard testified that wage increases which the company would grant affecting 1204 men during the year 1918, would total $48,584.13. Increases in the cost of material actually needed for maintenance of way, and upkeep during 1918, were represented as $58,333.25.

Valuation Expert A. S. Kibbe was recalled to the stand by Attorney Greene to present his own figures for the cost of material actually needed for maintenance of way, and upkeep during 1918, who have attacked his composite equivalent plan.

Civic Association Opposes Ordinance

Opposing the proposed amendment of the city's civil service ordinance, on the ground that it would curtail the powers of the Civil Service Board and thus endanger the democratic principles of the city's employment system, Dr. Carl Walliser last night made a protest against the change before the Civic Association. The association has gone on record against the change, a resolution, adopted at the meeting last night, being filed today with the council.

George F. Whittier, Dr. Walliser, and Thomas Marshall were appointed a committee last night to aid the Red Cross drive in behalf of the association.

ITALIAN FLAG FLIES FROM TOP OF CITY HALL

Side by side on the great flagpole on top of the City Hall, the Italian national emblem flies with the Stars and Stripes today in commemoration of Italy's entrance into the war with the Allies.

After the city had been combed for an Italian flag of sufficient proportions to be used on the flagpole, an appeal was made to prominent Italian residents and through the efforts of Jack Barlaschini, restaurateur of Eleventh street, two flags were obtained from Italian societies in San Francisco. One was raised over the Postoffice.

Night School Class Will Present Drama

Christopher Junior, a drama in four acts, will be presented by the members of the Fremont evening school dramatic class at the Fremont high school auditorium tonight. Some time has been spent by those taking part, in rehearsing the play, which is one of the best to be presented at the high school. The receipts will go toward the Junior Red Cross Auxiliary fund, and also to the school curtain fund. The play will start 8:15 o'clock and music will be furnished by the Fremont high school orchestra.

Verdict for $10,000 Against Car Company

The jury in the suit of Lester Charves, in Judge Brown's department, for damages from the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railway for the loss of his left arm as the result of being run over by a car of the company's, returned a verdict for $10,000 in the plaintiff's favor. The amount sued for was $25,000. The accident happened at Twenty-ninth and Adeline in 1915.

DEBTS HEAVY, BUT NOT HIS INCOME

Edwin N. Walter, former manager of the Oakland baseball club, was on the witness stand today in Judge J. H. Wastes' department, in connection with the application of his wife, Bertha H. Walter, for temporary alimony pending the settlement of their divorce suit, in which the wife as plaintiff complains that he deserted her in New York recently and left her without carfare.

Walter declared during the examination as to his ability to pay alimony and costs that he owes $30,000, and that his sole income is $225 a month, which he receives as cashier of the Italian Bank at Livermore, besides $55 a month income from his interest in the San Francisco recreation park. The judge allowed the plaintiff only $50 a month and the costs of the suit.

Veteran of Civil War Dies at Home

William B. Ogden, who served as a Lieutenant in the Civil War and had lived in this State 52 years, died at his home, 529 Thirtieth street, yesterday after an illness of four months. He was 75 years old and was a native of Illinois. After the Civil War he came to California and farmed at Marysville until 1877, when he went to live in Hydesville, Humboldt county, where he took up carpentering.

He came to Oakland from there ten years ago making his home with his daughters, Miss Elizabeth and Miss Etta L. Ogden, the latter of whom is a teacher in the intermediate school here. His wife died ten years ago in the north. Ogden was a member of Lyon Post No. 8, of the Grand Army of the Republic, and belonged to the Odd Fellows and the Owls.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow from a local undertaking parlor.

THINKS GEORGE WASHINGTON IS STILL AT HELM

The spirit of George Washington is the greatest thing in this land of liberty in the opinion of William J. Woodhouse, from England, applying today before Judge James G. Quinn for naturalization.

In answer to the questions of the naturalization examiner, Woodhouse said it is still George Washington in the flesh who makes the laws. It is George who calls the people to Washington where they deliberate as to the needs of the country, and it is George who decides what those needs are and shapes the law accordingly. In fact the Father of his Country is still at the helm, and there is none other.

Judge Quinn continued the matter for a time to enable the applicant to become acquainted with

PYTHIANS GIVE FUNDS TO WAR

Breaking all precedent in the order, the state convention of the Knights of Pythias today, at its closing session, refused to appropriate the usual $5000 fund for development of the order and organization of new lodges. Wartime economy was the reason advanced for this drastic action, all the lodge's spare funds to be invested in Liberty bonds.

C. P. Cummings of Fresno was installed today by Judge George Samuel, with the rest of the new grand officers. His inaugural address was a patriotic appeal to the lodge to back the government's war aims. The convention closed today with an outpour at an Alameda beach, the spirit of Abraham Lincoln and with Woodrow Wilson.

A Message to Mothers

YOU know the real human doctors right around in your neighborhood: the doctors made of flesh and blood just like you: the doctors with souls and hearts: those men who are responding to your call in the dead of night as readily as in the broad daylight; they are ready to tell you the good that Fletcher's Castoria has done, is doing and will do, from their experience and their love for children.

Fletcher's Castoria is nothing new. We are not asking you to try an experiment. We just want to impress upon you the importance of buying Fletcher's.

Your physician will tell you this, as he knows there are a number of imitations on the market, and he is particularly interested in the welfare of your baby.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher

"They Gave Till They Died"

Gresham! Enright! Hay! First of the American Army—they died in France! They died for us! And willingly! But not, pray God, in vain!

For the sake of them, if for no other reason, will you not give to the Red Cross, which will care for the men that follow them?

For the sake of what they died for, will you not give—and give till the heart says stop?

None of us here can give as greatly as they gave and as others are yet to give. But we can sacrifice ourselves a little.

Will you take a little from the comforts of your life and give—not a mere "conscience gift" that salves your pride and lets you say: "I have given to the Red Cross"—but a gift that cuts down into the quick and hurts because it makes you deny yourself?

Remember—they gave till they died.

If you have NOT contributed, the least you can do is to send your contribution today to Campaign Headquarters, Oakland Chapter, American Red Cross, 1444 Broadway, Oakland.

Every cent of every dollar received for the Red Cross War Fund goes for War Relief.

The American Red Cross is the largest and most efficient organization for the relief of suffering that the World has ever seen.

It is made up almost entirely of volunteer workers, the higher executives being without exception men accustomed to large affairs, who are in almost all cases giving their services without pay.

It is supported entirely by its membership fees and by voluntary contributions.

It is today bringing relief to suffering humanity, both military and civil, in every war-torn allied country.

It plans tomorrow to help in the work of restoration throughout the world.

It feeds and clothes entire populations in times of great calamity.

It is there to help your soldier boy in his time of need.

With its thousands of workers, its tremendous stores and smooth running transportation facilities it is serving as America's advance guard—and thus helping to win the war.

Congress authorizes it.

President Wilson heads it.

The War Department audits its accounts.

Your Army, your Navy and your Allies enthusiastically endorse it.

Twenty-two million Americans have joined it.

BERKELEY IS OVER RED CROSS TOP

BERKELEY, May 24.—With $6000 more than its quota already subscribed, Berkeley won "over the top" this morning in the second Red Cross drive. The sum of $5600 in cash and pledges has also been raised in the city, and the $10000 mark by tomorrow night.

Berkeley has responded liberally but must subscribe still more in order that the city may go over the top with a handsome sum in order to wipe out the only blot on her war record by failing to reach her quota in the first drive last year," said Chairman I. F. Jackson of the Berkeley drive committee this morning.

To bring the Red Cross drive to a fitting close, Mabel Hugelmann, famous grand opera star, has offered her services for tomorrow's mass meeting to be held at 2:30 o'clock in the Greek Theater. When Captain Arthur J. Francis of the Red Cross will bring a message from the American boys in France. Captain Francis has just returned from the front line, where he made a tour of inspection of the American sector and will bring words of cheer and optimism from France for the people at home.

Are You Helping Save Food? Prize Waits You Tribune Day

War Service League to Hold Contest at Idora Party

You've got to hand it to Little Willie, all right!

All he thinks about is TRIBUNE DAY. He is counting the days till then off on the calendar and his whole program is mapped out. He knows all the concessions he's to have free tickets to—that's all the concessions at Idora—and he knows just what to do with every ticket!

There's just one day in the year, so far as he's concerned.

And that's TUESDAY, JUNE 4, TRIBUNE DAY AT IDORA!

His mamma is getting ready in the meantime for her part in the big day. For there's to be something doing all the time for the grownups as well as for the little fellows. There's the great conservation contest for housewives, for instance, in which the War Service League will offer prizes for the housewives offering the best recipes for hooverized foods. The best wheatless bread, wheatless cakes, the best jams and jellies or canned fruits or vegetables will be awarded prizes. Each housewife will prepare her recipe and a sample of the food, as made by herself—cakes, jams, jellies, and so on. Experts will look them over.

Observe the Dental Sign on Bill; Observe his Grin. Observe his joy. For TRIBUNE DAY is drawing nigh, When joy's on tap for every boy! His mamma's cooking for a prize. His papa's waiting for the show. His brothers, sisters, friends, and all With him to TRIBUNE DAY will go!

To win a prize will be a high honor, conferred by the War Service League on the housewives as official recognition of a patriotic achievement. For every woman who perfects a method of saving food is directly helping Uncle Sam win the war. It will be a very remarkable exhibit. The rules, entry blanks and details will be ready in a few days. A general committee, composed of the secretary of every branch club of the league, is now at work on these details.

Then there will be other big features—an all-star vaudeville show in the evening, spectacles during the afternoon, swimming races and many other glorious plumes of entertainment for the TRIBUNE DAY guests.

And it's all FREE! Not a cent will be asked for any of it.

The TRIBUNE takes over the park and The TRIBUNE committee is arranging the show that will culminate in a great evening.

It'll be a great, grand day and night for all.

So remember! YOU HAVE A DATE: And it's TRIBUNE DAY, TUESDAY, JUNE 4, AT IDORA!

Hayward Tops Red Cross Quota $1000

HAYWARD, May 24.—This city has given $1000 above its quota of $2500 in the present Red Cross drive, as shown in returns from the first three days. J. D. Armstrong, treasurer of the campaign committee, says it is intended to raise $10,000 in the district comprising Hayward, San Lorenzo and Mount Eden. The twenty-five committees collecting the funds are everywhere meeting with a willingness to donate.

PRODUCE ANOTHER RIVET CHAMPION

L. W. Mason, former holder-on for Tom Horn, who recently established a rivet-driving record, is the new claimant for the world's single hand-riveting championship. Mason and his crew of assistants established a new bull-riveting record of 3095 one-eighth snap rivets in eight hours and 3514 rivets in nine hours. The record was made at the Moore shipyards, and Mason today was adjudged at union headquarters to hold the new title. The old record, broken by Horn, was held by Edward Gibson of Kearney, N. J., with 2919 rivets.

Street Drive Is On Tomorrow

Tomorrow the street drive of the big Red Cross campaign will take place. Beginning bright and early, pedestrians, automobilists, and others moving abroad, will meet a well-organized army of workers who are experts at the art of luring elusive shekels from the pockets of the patriots.

Eighteen booths are to be established at intervals along the streets in the downtown district. These booths will be in charge of accredited Red Cross workers, and will remain in operation until next Monday night, the closing night of the big drive. The booths have been apportioned among captains who will have staffs of workers to assist them.

The booths and the captains in charge are as follows:

Broadway between Thirteenth and Fourteenth—Mrs. Fred Sherman. Pign Whistle—Mrs. Harrison Clay. First National Bank—Mrs. Wickham. Havens.

Thirteenth and Broadway—Mrs. Percy Murdock. Venus Candy Store—Mrs. Dan Bel-den. Tafts—Mrs. H. Spens Black. Postoffice—Mrs. Kendall Morgan. Oakland Bank of Savings—Mrs. Joseph Knowland. Fourteenth and Franklin—Mrs. Oscar Sutro. Twelfth and Broadway—Mrs. William Thornton White. Hotel Oakland—Mrs. Jack Martin. Houts & Ramage—Mrs. Charles Tripler Hutchinson. Ross Bros.—Mrs. Harry Knowles. Fourteenth and Washington—Mrs. William Glassford. City Hall—Mrs. Edward Lacy Brayton. Caprells (Fourteenth street entrance)—Mrs. Willard Williamson. Smith Bros.—Mrs. Joseph Carlston. Fourteenth and Broadway (Mortons)—Mrs. George Hammer.

Mary Miles Minter Makes Unique Donation to Red Cross

MARY MILES MINTER, the charming film star, who donated the money she earned from her latest film play, "Social Briars," to the Red Cross.

Miss Minter will appear in "Social Briars" at the American commencing Sunday matinee.

Although her duties as president of the Children's Patriotic League, which called for sneaking tours in the southern part of the State on drives for the Red Cross, Liberty bonds and thrift stamps, took many of her days, Mary Miles Minter had sufficient time to devote to her profession to play her part in "Social Briars," a charmingly refreshing production of the Minter series which will be at the American commencing Sunday matinee. On the same bill is Bert Lytell, formerly of the Alcazar players, in "The Trail to Yesterday," which was completed immediately prior to Lytell's enlistment in the Liberty army.

Dainty Mary Miles Minter, in completing "Social Briars," performed a labor of love, for aside from the appealing charm of the romance, the money earned by the actress from the picture was donated to the Red Cross. Lytell's "road to yesterday" was a happy one, indeed, and were it not that the commanding officer will direct his road for some time, he would make it again. Love and adventure in an exciting series are the features of the picture.

Theda Bara in "The Forbidden Path" and Tom Mix in "Six Shooter Andy" will be shown tonight and tomorrow for the last time.—Advertisement.
